FR. ERIC - RAMBLINGS

MASS: "SOURCE & SUMMIT"

"The liturgy, in itself, is not only spontaneous prayer, but something more and more original: it is an act that founds the whole Christian experience and, therefore, also prayer. It is event, it is happening, it is presence, it is encounter. It is an encounter with Christ. Christ makes himself present in the Holy Spirit through the sacramental signs: hence the need for us Christians to participate in the divine mysteries." (Pope Francis)

Principles

- The liturgy is the high point of our lives as Catholic Christians.
- The liturgy is the source, the font, from which we find strength to live as Christ's people.
- From the Eucharist, we are sent on a mission, ready to glorify God by our lives.

Reflection question:

What experience comes to mind in which I was "set on fire" by Christ's love during Mass?

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

Next week, we will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous. For more information, visit <http://www.peterspence.va/en.html>.

RCIA

RCIA, Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults is for both unbaptized persons and for baptized Christians who wish now to live their baptismal life in the tradition of the Catholic Church. Information available for children, adults and families. Please contact Ken Vendryes at 937-545-9197, ksvend80@roadrunner.com or Susan Anderson at 937-335-2833, ext. 104, sanderson@stpattroy.org. RCIA Information Hour will be Wednesday, June 23, 2021, 6:30-7:30 p.m. at St. Patrick Church, Undercroft.

BE NOT AFRAID

Reflection on Mark 4:35-41

"What's the point of being Christian if you don't also know that what God withholds in the way of protection, He more than supplies in the form of support."

These words, from the great preacher, William Sloane Coffin, help me remember not to expect a pain-free, storm-free life. Sometimes we can fall into the trap of seeing the difficulties of life as punishments, or as proof that we aren't pious enough. Nothing could be further from the truth of living in God's presence.

When we belong to Christ, we follow Him in the pattern of His life, suffering, death and Resurrection – the Paschal Mystery. Storms will come. We will get tossed about by them. We may even fall overboard. But in all of life's difficulties, we have a God who, in Christ, suffers with us. In the God who walks with us, intimately, through all the darkneses, pains, and tragedies life will offer, we have all the support that heaven can provide. Be not afraid.

~ Fr. Jay

THE NATIVITY OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

Feast Day: June 24 •

Patron Saint of Baptism

John spent his time in the desert, an ascetic. He began to announce the coming of the Kingdom, and to call everyone to a fundamental reformation of life. His purpose was to prepare the way for Jesus. His baptism, he said, was for repentance. But one would come who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and fire. John was not worthy even to untie his sandals. His attitude toward Jesus was: "He must increase; I must decrease" (John 3:30).

The greatness of John, his pivotal place in the history of salvation, is seen in the great emphasis Luke gives to the announcement of his birth and the event itself—both made prominently parallel to the same occurrences in the life of Jesus. John attracted countless people to the banks of the Jordan, and it occurred to some people that he might be the Messiah. But he constantly deferred to Jesus, even to sending away some of his followers to become the first disciples of Jesus.

Perhaps John's idea of the coming of the Kingdom of God was not being perfectly fulfilled in the public ministry of Jesus. For whatever reason, when he was in prison he sent his disciples to ask Jesus if he was the Messiah. Jesus' answer showed that the Messiah was to be a figure like that of the Suffering Servant in Isaiah. John himself would share in the pattern of messianic suffering, losing his life to the revenge of Herodias.

John challenges us Christians to the fundamental attitude of Christianity – total dependence on the Father, in Christ. Except for the Mother of God, no one had a higher function in the unfolding of salvation. Yet the least in the kingdom, Jesus said, is greater than he, for the pure gift that the Father gives. The attractiveness as well as the austerity of John, his fierce courage in denouncing evil – all stem from his fundamental and total placing of his life within the will of God.
