FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

HOW CAN I GET MORE OUT OF MASS...

A very common comment that priests hear is, "Father E, I didn't get much out of Mass." Or they may ask, "how can I get more out of Mass, how do I feel closer to God?" Over the next couple of weeks, Fr. Eric's Ramblings will offer us the opportunity to reflect upon what we can do to make our experience of Mass much richer, enjoyable, and helpful for our faith life.

It starts with an attitude.

If we think about Mass and going to Mass as simply "fulfilling my Sunday obligation," then we have already set the bar very low. There is such a big difference in doing something out of obligation vs. doing something rooted in love. The Church asks us to come together to give thanks and praise to God out of a reciprocal love, because He has loved us first, to the point of pouring out His life on the cross for us. The Second Vatican Council reminds us that the Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith life. To say that the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life means at least two things. First, that the Christian life flows from the Eucharist as its source, the way light streams forth from the sun. Second, is that the Eucharist is the summit to which all our actions should be directed, intimate union with the Son of God who gives Himself to us in the Eucharist, to dwell in our body in a very real and tangible way.

Our faith life comes from the liturgy and when we celebrate the liturgy well, that celebration is the best expression of our faith life. The Constitution sought to renew the liturgy so that we might all have "fully conscious and active participation" in it. How different this vision is from simply saying, "I have to go to Mass?"

What if we prepared each week to celebrate the fullness of our Christian existence in the sacrifice of Mass the same way and with the same enthusiasm we might prepare for attending our favorite sporting event, or preparing for our vacation to Disney World.

The trouble with the Mass is that we don't tend to think about our genuine participation in it. We can have a lot of experience of not "getting anything out of it," when we don't prepare to be engaged in the actions of the liturgy and give ourselves to them.

Reflection question: What is my attitude or starting point for attending Mass? What do I need to do to change that attitude to an expression of love and not mere obligation?

THANK YOU
MY DEAR
PEOPLE OF GOD

"It was really for the sake of saving lives that God sent me here ahead of you." Genesis 45:5
It was a great surprise for everyone. I believe God does everything in His time. God placed me during this pandemic in your midst and kept me safe from this virus and He spoke loud and clear that, "My people are with you and they love the poor." Yes, this is what my experience was with you. From the bottom of my heart, I thank all of you for the wonderful contribution that you did to the Indian Mission. I knew how much you really wanted to help the poor and especially during this pandemic. I will keep you in my daily prayers and pray for your families.

From St. Patrick's Church, Troy your donations towards the Indian Mission are $19,469.00 [Nineteen thousand four hundred sixty-nine dollars].
Thanks from your friend, brother, and priest Fr. Michael Samala.

LEARNING THROUGH THE UNEXPECTED

Reflection on Mark 6:30-34

Some years ago I had agreed to lead a worship service for a group of boy scouts at their summer camp. I left in plenty of time to be prompt, but unexpected road work got me turned around. I finally found a familiar road, and realized I had better hurry so as to be on time. When the state patrolman pulled me over, I thought, "Great, now I'll have an escort." But he had other plans. The "priest on a mission" line didn't appeal to him. $75.00 later, I arrived at the camp, a little late and very subdued at getting caught.

Jesus and His disciples get caught in this Gospel story. Trying to get away by themselves for some much needed rest, they end up being followed by a crowd of hungry folks, wanting what they have to offer. What was supposed to be a retreat turned into an intense time of teaching and feeding the vast crowd.

I am sure that getting caught that way by the needs of so many people unleashed many graces for Jesus and His disciples. For me, getting caught speeding made me slow down and drive more safely. When the unexpected, the surprising, even the irritating, rushes in to meet us – though it may not tickle – it is more often than not an invitation to get caught up in something new and growth-ful.

~ Fr. Jay

ST. MARY MAGDALENE

Feast Day: July 22 • Patron Saint of Converts, Repentant Sinners and Women

Mary Magdalene was one of Jesus' most faithful followers. According to the Bible, she had been a sinner and Christ drove the evil from her. Because of the Lord's kindness, she completely transformed her way of life. Her thanks to Him were shown by her love and complete devotion to God. She was present at our Lord's Passion and burial and was among the women who ministered to Christ during His suffering and actually washed His feet with her hair. She was also the messenger of the good news of Jesus' Resurrection. Mary Magdalene's example of penitence has inspired Christians for centuries.

*O faithful Mary Magdalene,
You were so willing to atone for your sins,
Finding happiness and light through God.
I entreat you to pray for me so that I may rid myself of wrongdoing.
Pray that I remain true to God's desire and keep my own desires pure.
Ask our Father in Heaven to take away this temptation
So that I may remain on the path of righteousness.
Amen.*
