FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

OCTOBER, THE MONTH OF OUR BLESSED MOTHER...

The month of October each year is dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. As we begin our month of Mary, let us pray that we may have a Marian heart.

Mary, from the first moment she knew her Creator and because of her Immaculate Conception, gave herself completely to Him for whatever He would ask of her. That she might belong irrevocably to God, Mary consecrated herself to Him at an early age by a vow of virginity. In giving of her life, completely to God, her yes to His Will, as announced by the angel, became for all the “Cause of Joy” as the Son of God was formed in her womb. Mary existed only for God and from the time of the divine Maternity, only for Jesus and for souls. Everything Mary does is an effort to give Jesus to the world.

We turn to the intercession of Blessed Mother that we may have a heart like hers, one that does everything to give Jesus to the World and to be faithful to the Will of God.

PRAYER TO SAINT PHILOMENA FOR THE SUCCESS OF BEACONS OF LIGHT

O faithful virgin and glorious martyr, Saint Philomena, who works so many miracles on behalf of the poor and sorrowful, have pity on me. Thou knowest the multitude and diversity of my needs. Behold me at thy feet, full of misery, but full of hope. I entreat thy charity, O great Saint. Graciously hear me and obtain from God a favorable answer to the request which I now humbly lay before you (here specify your petition). I am firmly convinced that through the merits, through the scorn, the sufferings and the death thou didst endure, united to the merits of the Passion and Death of Jesus thy Spouse, I shall obtain what I ask of thee and the joy of my heart I will bless God, who is admirable in His saints. Amen.

Reflection on Mark 10:17-30

We know him only, from Mark's Gospel, as the man who ran up to Jesus, knelt before Him, and asked Him a question about what must be done to inherit eternal life. I daresay each of us would consider it a life-changing grace to have such a moment with Jesus, such a personal encounter with the chance to ask a burning question!

Jesus' response to the question involves living in right relationship with God, self and others through observing the commandments. But Jesus also adds one more thing: "Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." Now, we learn one more thing about this nameless man – that he must have been rich, because in his response to the "one more thing," his "face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions."

In my imagination, I see Jesus scanning the crowds every day after this encounter, looking for this man, desiring his conversion, wanting him to accept His invitation to follow Him. However, we might interpret the meaning of the "one more thing" Jesus asks, I believe that the most important verse in this story is: "Jesus, looking at him, loved him...." That gaze of infinite love never leaves any of us, even when we walk away. Jesus is always searching for you!

~ Fr. Jay

ST. TERESA OF AVILA

Feast Day: October 15 • Patron Saint of Headaches

Teresa lived in an age of exploration as well as political, social, and religious upheaval. She was born before the Protestant Reformation and died almost 20 years after the closing of the Council of Trent.

As a woman, Teresa stood on her own two feet, even in the man's world of her time. She was "her own woman," entering the Carmelites despite strong opposition from her father. She is a person wrapped not so much in silence as in mystery. Beautiful, talented, outgoing, adaptable, affectionate, courageous, enthusiastic, she was totally human. Like Jesus, she was a mystery of paradoxes: wise, yet practical; intelligent, yet much in tune with her experience; a mystic, yet an energetic reformer; a holy woman, a womanly woman.

Teresa was a woman "for God," a woman of prayer, discipline, and compassion. Her heart belonged to God. Her ongoing conversion was an arduous lifelong struggle, involving ongoing purification and suffering. She was misunderstood, misjudged, and opposed in her efforts at reform. Her writings on prayer and contemplation are drawn from her experience: powerful, practical, and graceful. She was a woman of prayer; a woman for God.

Teresa was a woman "for others." Though a contemplative, she spent much of her time and energy seeking to reform herself and the Carmelites, to lead them back to the full observance of the primitive Rule. She founded over a half-dozen new monasteries. She traveled, wrote, fought—always to renew, to reform. In her self, in her prayer, in her life, in her efforts to reform, in all the people she touched, she was a woman for others, a woman who inspired and gave life.

Ours is a time of turmoil, a time of reform, and a time of liberation. Modern women have in Teresa a challenging example. Promoters of renewal, promoters of prayer, all have in Teresa a woman to reckon with, one whom they can admire and imitate.
