BEACONS OF LIGHT

O faithful virgin and glorious martyr, Saint Philomena, who works so many miracles on behalf of the poor and sorrowful, have pity on me. Thou knowest the multitude and diversity of my needs. Behold me at thy feet, full of misery, but full of hope. I entreat thy charity, O great Saint. Graciously hear me and obtain from God a favorable answer to the request which I now humbly lay before you (here specify your petition). I am firmly convinced that through the merits, through the scorn, the sufferings and the death thou didst endure, united to the merits of the Passion and Death of Jesus thy Spouse, I shall obtain what I ask of thee and the joy of my heart I will bless God, who is admirable in His saints. Amen.

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION THANK YOU

Thank you to those that organized and those that participated in the Spiritual Adoption. Your prayers for a baby in the womb and your thoughts about his or her growth and development will be heard. Also, thank you for the packs of diapers, blankets and cash that will be used to assist young families that visit the Help Center at 305 East Main Street.

If you know of any persons that could use our help with cribs, mattresses, car seats, clothing, formula, diapers or just a listening ear, send them our way. Or if you have a couple of hours each week to volunteer, just let us know 335-5433. Thanks to all for your generosity.

CALL TO SERVICE

Reflection on Mark 10:35-45

In a piece of wisdom from the Hindu tradition, a young woman asks an older woman, "What is life's heaviest burden?" And the older woman responds, "To have nothing to carry." As followers of Christ, you and I carry the burden of love, contributing ourselves, our substance, all that we are, to the treasury of the world's need. We learn this in today's Gospel, along with James and John and the other disciples, as Jesus meets their (and our) ambitions and desire for recognition and greatness with the call to service. Greatness, according to Jesus, comes from self-giving, from serving others, from loving.

St. John tells us that God is love. Another John, St. John of the Cross, teaches us that, "in the twilight of our life, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human success, but rather on how much we have loved." Is this who we are becoming?

~ Fr. Jay

ST. LUKE, EVANGELIST

Feast Day: October 18 • Patron Saint of Artists

Luke wrote one of the major portions of the New Testament, a two-volume work comprising the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. In the two books he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and Paul calls him "our beloved physician." His Gospel was probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

Luke appears in Acts during Paul's second journey, remains at Philippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey, accompanies Paul to Jerusalem, and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion.

Luke's unique character may best be seen by the emphases of his Gospel, which has been given a number of subtitles:

- 1) The Gospel of Mercy
- 2) The Gospel of Universal Salvation
- 3) The Gospel of the Poor
- 4) The Gospel of Absolute Renunciation
- 5) The Gospel of Prayer and the Holy Spirit
- 6) The Gospel of Joy

Luke wrote as a Gentile for Gentile Christians. His Gospel and Acts of the Apostles reveal his expertise in classic Greek style as well as his knowledge of Jewish sources. There is a warmth to Luke's writing that sets it apart from that of the other synoptic Gospels, and yet it beautifully complements those works. The treasure of the Scriptures is a true gift of the Holy Spirit to the Church.

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

There have been some requests to bring back the St. Patrick Dinner Club. This is a wonderful way to get to know your fellow parishioners in a more intimate way. You just sign up to join in and we put 4 couples or singles together. Each group decides when to meet and takes turns hosting. The host home provides the main course and coordinates other dishes with the guests. Prefer not to host? That is fine – decide where to meet at a restaurant instead; it is still a nice evening visiting. This is open to everyone, not just couples so get ready for some Fun Times, Good Conversation & Delicious Food. Form can be found in the bookrack of the church! Fill it out and send into Parish Office by November 1.

Eric at ebowman@stpattroy.org.
