PRAYER TO SAINT PHILOMENA FOR THE SUCCESS OF BEACONS OF LIGHT

O faithful virgin and glorious martyr, Saint Philomena, who works so many miracles on behalf of the poor and sorrowful, have pity on me. Thou knowest the multitude and diversity of my needs. Behold me at thy feet, full of misery, but full of hope. I entreat thy charity, O great Saint. Graciously hear me and obtain from God a favorable answer to the request which I now humbly lay before you (here specify your petition). I am firmly convinced that through the merits, through the scorn, the sufferings and the death thou didst endure, united to the merits of the Passion and Death of Jesus thy Spouse, I shall obtain what I ask of thee and the joy of my heart I will bless God, who is admirable in His saints. Amen.

FIRST AND FOREMOST, A BELOVED CHILD OF GOD

Reflection on Mark 10:46-52

"Many rebuked him, telling him to be silent." Such is the response of some in the crowd as they react to the blind beggar, Bartimaeus, calling out to Jesus. Have you ever received that message from someone or some group of people? Either overtly or in a more subtle way, so many on the margins, so many of our young people, are told to be quiet, to make themselves scarce, not to call attention to themselves and their legitimate needs.

When Jesus tells Bartimaeus that his faith has saved him, perhaps He was referencing the beggar's persistence, his determination to find his voice and make it heard, his insistence that carrying his desires/prayers to Jesus in personal encounter will surely result in a showering of grace, his courage in going against the "many" who just want him to go away and stop irritating them.

For faith is like that. When Jesus encounters the faith of Bartimaeus and of so many others in the Gospel stories, He highlights the fact that they are, first and last, His beloved children. Faith is knowing, in the depth of your being, that you are loved by God. When you have this gift, you can approach the Divine as a child, with any request, and you will be heard.

~ Fr. Jay

ST. JUDE THADDEUS

Feast Day: October 28 •

Patron Saint of Lost

Causes

Jude's father was a martyr, and his mother kindly stood at the cross and anointed Christ's body after His death. He was actually the nephew of Mary and Joseph, and it is said that he looked very much like his cousin Jesus. His patronage of impossible causes stems from confusion between him and Judas. Since early Christians prayed for Judas' help, and not Jude Thaddeus, devotion to Jude was "a lost cause." Jude was killed with a club and beheaded after his death in Persia during the first century. His relics were distributed in Rome and France.

Dearest cousin of Christ, St. Jude Thaddeus,
In this desperate situation I ask for your prayers.
It seems all is lost but I remain faithful in the Lord.
Ask Him my solemn prayer and provide the best outcome.
Brave and honorable, St. Jude Thaddeus,
I beseech your help in praying for this hopeless cause
So that in the end, God's will is done.

Amen.

SCHOOL NEWS

Please keep in your prayers Elizabeth Whetstone and her children. Her husband Brian passed away October 13. They have 5 children. Zachary grade 5, Cole grade 4, Grant grade 1, Anna in preschool and Emily at home.

October is the month of the Rosary. We spend extra time in October teaching the students the importance and special graces of the Rosary. Mary asks us to pray the Rosary often. She especially asks us to pray the Rosary as a family. The Rosary is a powerful weapon against all evil. There are several good movies and programs about the Rosary on FORMED.

October 30, the school along with Faith Formation will join together for a Trunk or Treat in the parish parking lots in the afternoon and the school will host a Halloween party for adults in the evening. Please call the school or Susan Anderson for more details. Have a blessed week and pray the Rosary!!

Cyndi Cathcart

In September the Pre-K learned about apples. They did apple prints and made applesauce. In October they did marble rolls with Fall colors. The students love dressing up as community helpers too!
