November 20-21 is our annual collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), the national anti-poverty campaign of the U.S. bishops. CCHD has been an immeasurable blessing for thousands in our Archdiocese over the years. Just this past year, the agencies funded by CCHD have empowered more than 2,500 low-income people to break the cycle of poverty through such feats as finding jobs, responsibly reentering society after prison, educating youth, and securing decent housing and public services for their communities. Archbishop Dennis Schnurr appeals to the faithful this year: "Through the grants we make to well-vetted organizations, CCHD uniquely empowers those in poverty to identify their own needs and to become their own agents of positive change." Please prayerfully and generously consider how you will give on Collection Weekend, November 20-21. Your dollars are making real change! Visit www.usccb.org/cchd to learn more. Also check out the Archdiocesan CCHD website for more local information at <https://resources.catholicaoc.org/offices/catholic-social-action/task-forces-committees/cchd>.

GOD'S KINGDOM COME

Reflection on Mark 13:24-32

In what is called apocalyptic language, Jesus today refers to the end times. The imagery of this language is meant to jolt us out of our complacency and give us a sense of urgency. I think we miss the point of this kind of language if we hear or interpret it as a prediction of the future, and then try to interpret current events in light of it.

Rather, the message is a compelling reminder to each of us that our lives have a direction and a destiny. Created in God's own image, inserted into the very life of God through Baptism, gifted with unique charisms by God's Spirit, our lives make sense and are important to the overall plan of God. We live into our destiny by working to make God's world, God's kingdom come now.

This message also reminds us that God is in charge of our lives, not us. It is God, and no one else, who will bring the story of our lives to a close. Being Christian means dying to the sense that we control our own lives, and letting ourselves fall into the hands of God.

~ Fr. Jay

BLESSED JOHN LICCI

Feast Day: November 14 • Patron of Head Injuries

John's mother died in childbirth in 1400, and he began working miracles from his infancy. When his father left John alone while working in the fields, a neighbor woman heard John crying. She brought John home and laid him next to her paralyzed husband, and miraculously he was cured immediately. When John was returned to his father, the husband became paralyzed again. John devoted his life to God and continued working miracles throughout his life. A renowned healer, John cured at least three people with head traumas before dying at the age of 111. He wore the habit for ninety-six years, longer than any other clergyman.

Bl. John Licci, healer and friend to the community,

I beseech you to pray for these wounds to mend.

Restore to health this poor soul who has so much to give to the world.

By the grace of the Lord,

Pray for the restoration of this injury

And steady the doctor's hand throughout the healing process.

With God's blessing, I implore your help.

Amen.

FISH COLLECTION TODAY*TO SUPPORT COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING MEALS

As we look forward to gathering in late November with family for a delicious meal, we remember our Troy families who struggle to put food on the table. But we can help: FISH of Troy is requesting donations to provide take-home Thanksgiving dinners to local families in need. These are delicious fully-cooked meals with all the trimmings: turkey, potatoes, gravy, green bean casserole, sweet potato casserole, pumpkin pie, and rolls. Volunteers will be at the doors after all Masses today. FISH of Troy thanks you in advance for your generosity!

USHERS NEEDED

There is always a need for more volunteers to usher at the Masses. Details are simple with no stress! Help people find a seat if they arrive late, help collect the money envelopes from the faithful, place money/envelopes in a sealed bag and place in church safe, pass out bulletins after Mass to those who want them, enjoy your Sunday knowing that you have done your part to help St. Patrick parish. Any questions or to volunteer, ask any usher!

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Next weekend is Loose Change Collection for St. Vincent de Paul. After Mass, there will be representatives at the door of the church with red baskets to collect your loose change. All money collected is kept local for the people of Troy. Thank you for your generosity.

GIVE CATHOLIC....

On Tuesday, November 30th, St. Patrick will be participating in the second annual "Give Catholic" program. Give Catholic is an opportunity for parishioners to make donations to their parish without being assessed by the archdiocese, or to put it another way, all money donated on Tuesday, November 30th will stay at St. Patrick. Last year, St. Patrick had the second highest amount donated, with over $130,000.00 collected. This year, our goal is to raise funds to repair our church roof. We are currently getting estimates for the replacement/repair. This will be an expensive fix and we will be exploring our options but it is a high-priority item, since the leaking is continuing to cause plaster issues on the interior ceiling of the church. Repairing the interior plaster after the roof is replaced will be another matter. Please mark November 30th on your calendar and we will be providing more details on how to make your donation to our parish. Thank you so much for your generosity.

MINISTRY OF CARE

There have been many requests lately from parishioners who are in the need of a little help, such as a ride to church, doctor appointment, pick up prescriptions, respite care, meals and maybe even a little help around the home. A few months ago, we put together a Ministry of Care. We asked for volunteers to help provide any of these tasks that they would be willing to do and several did so and we truly appreciate their help. We can always use more volunteers, so if you feel you are able to help in any way just sign up by calling Pat Cartwright in the office at 937-335-2833. Remember, if you are called and unable to do it at the time, just say you are not available; there is no commitment. We also want to be sure if you are a parishioner in need of any of this help or something else, your parish family is here for you, so please call to ask for the help you may need. God's Blessings!

- Understanding of Supernatural things beyond our experience of time and space created by God.
