BE CENTERED IN CHRIST!

Reflection on Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

About 50 A.D., Paul of Tarsus arrived unceremoniously in Corinth. His preaching had so riled the Thessalonians that his fellow Christians hustled him out of town for safety. After an unsuccessful stint in Athens, Paul drifted into Corinth, a vibrant port notorious for immorality, where he found fertile soil and worked there for many months. But after his departure, problems exploded, and he engaged them in a lengthy, sometimes angry correspondence to solve them.

Paul begs the Corinthians, in the name of Jesus, that there be no factions among them. For it is evident that the reported “quarreling” in the church at Corinth was based upon divergent commitments to someone or something other than Jesus.

In Luke’s Gospel, after announcing his mission today in his home town of Nazareth, Jesus will leave Nazareth for Capernaum to commence and fulfill the promise of bringing Light. This is always and forever, for the church in every age and place, what unifies us as Christ’s Body: Jesus is the Light in the darkness! Centered in Christ, we can overcome all divisions, and bring that same Light to the world.

~ Fr. Jay

CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL

Feast Day: January 25

Saint Paul’s entire life can be explained in terms of one experience – his meeting with Jesus on the road to Damascus. In an instant, he saw that all the zeal of his dynamic personality was being wasted, like the strength of a boxer swinging wildly. Perhaps he had never seen Jesus, who was only a few years older. But he had acquired a zealot’s hatred of all Jesus stood for, as he began to harass the Church: “...entering house after house and dragging out men and women, he handed them over for imprisonment” (Acts 8:3b). Now he himself was “entered,” possessed, all his energy harnessed to one goal – being a slave of Christ in the ministry of reconciliation, an instrument to help others experience the one Savior.

One sentence determined his theology: “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting” (Acts 9:5b). Jesus was mysteriously identified with people – the loving group of people Saul had been running down like criminals. Jesus, he saw, was the mysterious fulfillment of all he had been blindly pursuing.

From then on, his only work was to “present everyone perfect in Christ. For this I labor and struggle, in accord with the exercise of his power working within me” (Colossians 1:28b-29). “For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and [with] much conviction” (1 Thessalonians 1:5a).

Paul’s life became a tireless proclaiming and living out of the message of the cross: Christians die baptismally to sin and are buried with Christ; they are dead to all that is sinful and unredeemed in the world. They are made into a new creation, already sharing Christ’s victory and someday to rise from the dead like Him. Through this Risen Christ, the Father pours out the Spirit on them, making them completely new.

So Paul’s great message to the world was: You are saved entirely by God, not by anything you can do. Saving faith is the gift of total, free, personal and loving commitment to Christ, a commitment that then bears fruit in more “works” than the Law could ever contemplate.

Paul is undoubtedly hard to understand. His style often reflects the rabbinical style of argument of his day, and often his thought skips on mountaintops while we plod below. But perhaps our problems are accentuated by the fact that so many beautiful jewels have become part of the everyday coin in our Christian language.

6-8TH GRADE RETREAT

Into the Deep Retreat will be a short overnight retreat for 6-8th graders hosted at Ascension that will include a ropes course, team building games, and friendship, while diving into the question of our deepest desires. The retreat will engage students with high-energy games and thought-provoking questions about the desires of the human heart: desires for happiness, greatness, fulfillment, and true friendship. Using an inspiring quote from St. John Paul II, the youth will go deeper into the roots of these desires and find that at the center of everything they desire is Jesus Christ. We will learn about how we can live authentically and are made for greatness!

It will start at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, February 18th and close with a Mass just for the students and families at 8:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 19th.

The $30.00 registration includes meals, lodging, and a T-shirt. Email Abby Schmid at youthminister@stpattroy.org by January 27th to reserve your spot!

Your teen will experience the peace of Jesus Christ through inspiring talks from national speakers, praise and worship, and the Sacraments while safely connecting with hundreds of other Catholic teens in ways they will never forget.

This year's theme is "Fearless," with the focus on the verse, "I have told you this so that you might have peace in me. In the world you will have trouble, but take courage, I have conquered the world." (John 16:33).

Please RSVP and send in your $25.00 deposit by January 25th to reserve your spot. The total cost is $265.00, which includes the conference, meals, transportation, and two T-shirts. There are FULL and partial scholarships available. No one should be prevented from coming because of cost!
