THE BAPTISMAL JOURNEY

Reflection on Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

The Baptism of Jesus goes to the center of the mystery of redemption and of what Jesus' mission on earth is all about. There is also a special irony here, for in His Baptism Jesus enters into a radical solidarity with all women and men, taking upon Himself even the condition of our own sinfulness, Himself have not sinned. In going into those waters of Baptism, you and I leave sin behind, whereas Jesus takes on all the sin of the human race, and from those waters is sent by the Father on His mission to accomplish this redemption for us.

We, too, are sent on mission from the waters of Baptism. The Father proclaims to each of us, as He did to Jesus, "You are my beloved son, my beloved daughter...," reminding us, now that original sin has been wiped away, of the original blessing of all creation: God looked upon it and pronounced it all good! Grace, which is present "always and everywhere," is more powerful than sin.

Our baptismal journey involves leaving behind the binary way of the world (either/or) to live in the grace of Oneness with God. This is a both/and journey, where God is present in every human experience: weakness and strength, suffering and wholeness, life and death. Grace everywhere and in everything abounds!

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT ADRIAN OF CANTERBURY

Feast Day: January 9

Though Saint Adrian turned down a papal request to become Archbishop of Canterbury, England, Pope Saint Vitalian accepted the rejection on the condition that Adrian serve as the Holy Father's assistant and adviser. Adrian accepted, but ended up spending most of his life and doing most of his work in Canterbury.

Born in Africa, Adrian was serving as an abbot in Italy when the new Archbishop of Canterbury appointed him abbot of the monastery of Saints Peter and Paul in Canterbury. Thanks to his leadership skills, the facility became one of the most important centers of learning. The school attracted many outstanding scholars from far and wide and produced numerous future bishops and archbishops. Students reportedly learned Greek and Latin and spoke Latin, as well as their own native languages.

Adrian taught at the school for 40 years. He died there, probably in the year 710, and was buried in the monastery. Several hundred years later, when reconstruction was being done, Adrian's body was discovered in an incorrupt state. As word spread, people flocked to his tomb, which became famous for miracles. Rumor had it that young schoolboys in trouble with their masters made regular visits there.

Saint Adrian spent most of his time in Canterbury not as bishop, but as abbot and teacher. Often the Lord has plans for us that are obvious only on hindsight. How often have we said "no" to something or someone, only to end up in much the same place anyway? The Lord knows what's good for us. Can we trust Him?
