RADICAL LOVE

Reflection on Luke 6:27-38

This Gospel passage, with its many exhortations, may express what is most radical, and difficult, about Jesus' message. It strikes many as counterintuitive, as it confronts us at the core of how we relate to one another. The world will guide the relationships we have as human beings with the principle of reciprocity: protect yourself from others by deploying a good defense; retaliate when attacked; take an eye for an eye.

With Jesus we have a whole new ethic to guide our relationships, and it is only possible to live it with the grace of the Holy Spirit. No more tit-for-tat stuff. Ask yourself what you want people to do for you, then grab the initiative and do it for them. Let everyone, even enemies, bring out the best in you. With difficult people, respond with the energies of prayer for them. Use every occasion to practice the servant life.

Act toward all others as God acts toward you – with kindness, forgiveness, generosity, mercy, love. In today's divisive world, what would happen if we Christians took this message to heart and lived it? Let's do it and find out!

~ Fr. Jay

slow to anger and abounding in kindness.

SAINT WALBURGA

Feast Day: February 25

Patron of Those Caught in Storms, Fearful of Water, Sailors and the Harvest

Walburga was a daughter of Richard, an early king of England (also a saint), and grew up to give her life to God. She became a nun and spent her time with a few companions, converting pagans in what is now Germany. She died in Germany at the age of sixty-nine after a successful lifetime of spreading the Word of the Lord. Her relics were moved on May 1, the date of a pagan festival that celebrates the beginning of the summer. She is also represented with three ears of corn, which may be one of the reasons she is the patroness against famine and for good harvests.

St. Walburga, servant of the Lord our God,

Your prayers to God are clear and strong.

I ask that you pray for a good season for our farmers

And that the world maintains a plentiful supply of food.

I ask God to bless all who are hungry, especially the children.

Please provide those in need with the tools and means to survive.

Teach us how to make the most of God's bounty

So famine may disappear from the face of this wonderful earth.

Amen.

AROUND OUR PARISH

ST. PATRICK LENTEN PROJECT – SHARING LOVE

Last year, our Lenten Project was a huge success, as we offered a chance to reach out and bring love and put a smile on the faces of our parishioners who are in Nursing homes, assisted living facilities or homebound (42). We thought it would be nice to do this again. We had an overwhelming response from those who received gifts from the Giving Tree at Christmas and how loved they felt by their parish. Our plan is to ask parishioners to drop off some items that our seniors would enjoy in a box that will be in the back of church and ramp door.

Such items would include: new books, notecards and stamps, activity books, mechanical pencils, adult coloring books and colored pencils, socks, lotions, shampoos, conditioners, body wash, sanitizers, (small to medium bottles please) etc. Maybe you have some other suggestions. We will also collect money, which we will use to purchase more items needed, plus Mass cards and the bags to place gifts for delivery. You can place an envelope with your money, with checks made out to "St. Patrick Church memo Lenten Project," in collection baskets or bring to the office. Prayers are always welcome, too. Please have all items in by Monday, April 4th, so we can prepare bags for delivery the week of April 10th.

ST. PATRICK DINNER CLUB:

GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

As of now, we do not have enough couples to make this happen. There have been some requests to bring back the St. Patrick Dinner Club. This is a wonderful way to get to know your fellow parishioners in a more intimate way. You just sign up to join in and we put four couples or singles together. Each group decides when to meet and takes turns hosting. The host home provides the main course and coordinates other dishes with the guests. Prefer not to host? That is fine! Decide where to meet at a restaurant instead; it is still a nice evening visiting. This is open to everyone, not just couples, so get ready for some fun times, good conversation and delicious food. Forms can be found in the bookrack of the church! Fill it out and place in collection basket or send in to the Parish Office by February 22.

LENTEN RETREAT 2022 CARING FOR THE LEAST OF THESE

"For I was hungry, and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me... Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25: 35-37, 40)

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE A LENTEN ANGEL?

Lent begins on March 2. Once again, let us take this opportunity to reach out to a fellow parishioner during this Lenten Season. During Lent, as a Lenten Angel, you may remember this person with cards, letters, prayers, words of encouragement and cheer. At the conclusion of Lent, you will let your person know who you are, maybe a new friend or someone you already know. Please fill out the form that can be found on the bookrack in the back of church or ramp door, place in baskets found at the doors. Then, on the weekend of February 26-27, pull one form out, and that is who your Lenten Angel will be.

There have been many requests lately from parishioners who are in need of a little help, such as a ride to church, doctor appointment, picking up prescriptions, respite care, meals and maybe even a little help around the home. A few months ago, we put together a Ministry of Care. We asked for volunteers to help provide any of these tasks that they would be willing to do. Several did so and we truly appreciate their help. We can always use more volunteers, so if you feel you are able to help in any way, just sign up by calling Pat Cartwright in the office at 937-335-2833. Remember, if you are called and unable to do it at the time, just say you are not available; there is no commitment. - Explain how Jesus fulfills the Old Testament
- Share the Catholic Faith concisely
- Acquire a thorough knowledge of the Tabernacle's design and its function as a blueprint for the Faith
- Learn how to answer incomplete and non-Catholic interpretations of the Bible
