A NOTE FROM THE CHOIR LOFT:

As some of you know, I contracted COVID-19 during December of 2021. While my symptoms were relatively mild, my illness did leave me with little to no singing voice. Thankfully, I have been assured by my ENT that my voice will return with some therapy and time. While we wait for my voice to return, you will likely notice an increase in instrumental music at Mass. Most notably, at the Masses I lead, the Offertory and Communion Hymns will be replaced by instrumental organ selections as opposed to sung hymns; this is to give my voice the opportunity to rest and heal. I am hopeful that in not pushing my voice too far too early, I will be able to return to singing Masses stronger than ever in the near future. Finally, we still have a great need for Cantors at the 5:00 p.m., 7:30 a.m., and 9:30 a.m. Masses. If you or someone you know would be a good fit for Cantoring, please do not hesitate to reach out. No experience is needed; just a positive attitude.

You can contact me at mwagner@stpattroy.org.

BECOME FISHERS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Reflection on Luke 5:1-11

It is the struggle of every disciple of Jesus – of each of us – to live intentionally the mission of Jesus with which we have been entrusted. To do so, we must confront head-on the distractions of this world, all the voices coming at us that speak contrary to Jesus, that are hindrances to living the Gospel.

It comforts me to know that even the great disciples, like Peter and Paul, had the same struggle. Jesus joins Simon's fishing expedition today, and Simon, who will later be called Peter, becomes weak in the knees realizing he is called to a new vocation. There is a lot for him to leave behind in following Jesus.

Paul hears Jesus rebuking Him in the midst of a flashing light, and he no longer sees what he saw before. He also had to leave much behind in order to follow Jesus. And so it is for us. Leave behind what is necessary; ignore the contrary voices, and launch out into deep waters to lure the world to Christ. Become fishers of men and women.

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT PAUL MIKI AND COMPANIONS

Feast Day: February 6

Nagasaki, Japan, is familiar to Americans as the city on which the second atomic bomb was dropped, immediately killing over 37,000 people. Three and a half centuries before, 26 martyrs of Japan were crucified on a hill, now known as the Holy Mountain, overlooking Nagasaki. Among them were priests, brothers, and laymen, Franciscans, Jesuits, and members of the Secular Franciscan Order; there were catechists, doctors, simple artisans, and servants, old men and innocent children – all united in a common faith and love for Jesus and His Church.

Brother Paul Miki, a Jesuit and a native of Japan, has become the best known among the martyrs of Japan. While hanging upon a cross, Paul Miki preached to the people gathered for the execution: "The sentence of judgment says these men came to Japan from the Philippines, but I did not come from any other country. I am a true Japanese. The only reason for my being killed is that I have taught the doctrine of Christ. I certainly did teach the doctrine of Christ. I thank God it is for this reason I die. I believe that I am telling only the truth before I die. I know you believe me and I want to say to you all once again: Ask Christ to help you to become happy. I obey Christ. After Christ's example, I forgive my persecutors. I do not hate them. I ask God to have pity on all, and I hope my blood will fall on my fellow men as a fruitful rain." When missionaries returned to Japan in the 1860s, at first they found no trace of Christianity. But after establishing themselves, they found that thousands of Christians lived around Nagasaki and that they had secretly preserved the faith. Beatified in 1627, the martyrs of Japan were finally canonized in 1862.

Today, a new era has come for the Church in Japan. Although the number of Catholics is not large, the Church is respected and has total religious freedom. The spread of Christianity in the Far East is slow and difficult. Faith such as that of the 26 martyrs is needed today as much as in 1597.

ST. PATRICK DINNER CLUB: GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER?

As of now, we do not have enough couples to make this happen. There have been some requests to bring back the St. Patrick Dinner Club. This is a wonderful way to get to know your fellow parishioners in a more intimate way. You just sign up to join in and we put four couples or singles together. Each group decides when to meet and takes turns hosting. The host home provides the main course and coordinates other dishes with the guests. Prefer not to host? That is fine! Decide where to meet at a restaurant instead; it is still a nice evening visiting. This is open to everyone, not just couples, so get ready for some fun times, good conversation and delicious food. Forms can be found in the bookrack of the church! Fill it out and place in collection basket or send in to the Parish Office by February 22.

RCIA

During the Catechumenate Period of RCIA; Holland, Mike, Chris, Jim, Timothy and their sponsors go more deeply into the sacraments and theology of the Church. Topics include Moral Issues, Salvation and the Afterlife. Thank you for your continued prayers as they look forward to their full communion with the Catholic Church. RCIA meets every Monday, 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the Parish Center, Room 3. ### ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Our next Bible Study will be: Fulfilled: Uncovering the Biblical Foundations of Catholicism – Part One.

This Adult Bible Study has seven sessions:

- Sundays will be at 6:00 p.m.,
February 20-April 3, 2022.
- Wednesdays will be at 9:00 a.m.,
February 23-April 6.

For questions, contact Pat Smith at rsmith3055@aol.com or the Parish Office at 937-335-2833, ext. 2008.

This study is an apologetic approach to sharing the Catholic Faith using the Old Testament Tabernacle as a blueprint for God's plan. While it is designed as a faith-sharing Scripture study, you will also gain an understanding of some of the most questioned Catholic teachings.

Fulfilled will reignite your love of Scripture and help you share and defend the Catholic faith with the Word of God.

Fulfilled will help you...

- Explain how Jesus fulfills the Old Testament
- Share the Catholic Faith concisely
- Acquire a thorough knowledge of the Tabernacle's design and its function as a blueprint for the Faith
- Learn how to answer incomplete and non-Catholic interpretations of the Bible
- Examine your own faith and grow deeper in your relationship with Christ

MINISTRY OF CARE – REMINDER

There have been many requests lately from parishioners who are in the need of a little help, such as a ride to church, doctor appointment, pick up prescriptions, respite care, meals and maybe even a little help around the home. A few months ago, we put together a Ministry of Care. We asked for volunteers to help provide any of these tasks that they would be willing to do and several did so and we truly appreciate their help. We can always use more volunteers so if you feel you are able to help in any way, just sign up by calling Pat Cartwright in the office at 937-335-2833. Remember, if you are called and unable to do it at the time just say you are not available, there is no commitment. We also want to be sure if you are a parishioner in the need of any of this help or something else, your parish family is here for you so please call the parish office to ask for the help you may need.

God's Blessings.

GRIEFSHARE

Offers help and encouragement after the death of a spouse, child, family member, or friend. Next 13-week session begins: February 16, 2022, St. Patrick Parish Center, upstairs Room 3 1:00-2:30 p.m. or 7:00-8:30 p.m. each Wednesday.

SCHOOL

Here are a few of our doors that have been decorated for Catholic Schools Week. We had a great turnout for our Sunday pancake breakfast and our Open House.

Save the date of March 1st in your calendars. This is the beginning of our registration for next year. Watch the bulletin for updates.

Have a wonderful week!!
