RAMBLINGS FROM FR. ERIC

EASTER JOY: During the Easter season, we will hear a lot about having JOY, “choosing JOY,” living and radiating JOY, but what is JOY and how do I attain JOY? Joy is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit, it is lived/felt deep in one’s heart, the spirit, the center of the self. Joy is not a pleasure in the body, nor is it happiness in the mind or euphoric feelings; rather it can be found in the person who loves God with their whole heart and being. As we reflect on the immense range of emotions of Holy Week, from the triumphant entry with shouts of “Hosanna,” to the incredible gift of the Eucharist given for the first time, to the pain and incredible feelings of guilt at the betrayal of Our Lord, His Passion and death on the Cross, it should give rise to greater Joy, because we dwell on how much God loves us. Brothers and sisters, we are so loved that God sent His Only Son to pour out His life for us so that we may know, not just in our minds, but also deep in our souls, that we are loved. It is in the truth that we are so deeply and intimately loved that we will find JOY, no matter what is happening around us, or in our world. HE is Risen.....Alleluia Alleluia!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Please join us for a special reception for Fr. Michael on April 24, following all Sunday Masses.
He will be going home to India in May.

 WEEKLY RAFFLE WINNER ***

April 4 – Alan Russell

FR. MICHAEL'S VOICE

EASTER SUNDAY: WHY DO YOU SEEK THE LIVING AMONG THE DEAD?

None of Jesus' followers were expecting to see an empty tomb and hear the angel's message, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?" Is it any small wonder that it was the women, rather than the apostles, who first witnessed the empty tomb and then the appearance of the resurrected Lord (Matthew 28:8-10; Mark 16:9; John 20:15-18)? Isidore of Seville (560-636 AD), a great teacher and bishop, commented on the significance of the women being the first to hear the good news of the Resurrection: "As a woman (Eve) was first to taste death, so a woman (Mary Magdalene) was first to taste life. As a woman was prescient in the fall, so a woman was prescient in beholding the dawning of redemption, thus reversing the curse upon Eve." The first to testify to the risen Lord was a woman from whom Jesus had cast out seven demons.

NO MORE: FROM MAY 10, 2022 ONWARDS – NO MORE! No more long homilies. No more a strange voice and accent. No more stories from India. No more "in India..." No colder. No more men bundled up with extra clothes. No more extra sweet and cheese. No more right-side driving. No more miles for gallons; only kilometers for liters. No more gallons; only liters. No more frozen foods. No more daylight saving time. No more Republican or Democrat. Finally, no more SNOW, SLEET, AND FREEZING TEMPERATURES; ONLY PLUS CELSIUS. Oh boy, one more thing I forgot, one last thing! Guess what? [Ask me personally, I will tell you; don't try to imagine in your way and find an answer]. But I will miss such a beautiful, well-organized city, Troy, with fresh air, smiling people, and the great American soil. God Bless America. Finally, I will miss you ALL.

COVID AND MISSION APPEAL: COVID's second wave in India was affected very badly, since the leaders were not seriously prepared. In June 2021, Fr. Eric allowed me for a Mission appeal. This is the first and only one. "I realized and witnessed how much you love me and love the poor." I CANNOT FORGET YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT ALL THROUGHOUT MY LIFE. I believe that you will continue to remember me in your prayers and support my ministry. If God allows and in serving the Lord, I have planned with Fr. Eric that "ONCE IN TWO YEARS, I HAVE PLANS TO VISIT BOTH PARISHES FOR MISSION APPEALS AND SPEND TWO SUNDAYS WITH YOU." "Wish you All a Happy Easter."

Finally, NEXT WEEKEND IS AN OPEN HOUSE FOR ME AS A FAREWELL FROM ST. PATRICK CHURCH, TROY. April 24th in the undercroft, following Sunday Masses. I hope to see all of my friends!

RESUMPTION OF COMMUNION UNDER BOTH KINDS

Effective April 24, 2022, the Octave Day of Easter, distribution of the Precious Blood will resume. More extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist are needed. Please contact Matt Wagner if you are interested in being trained at mwagner@stpattroy.org.

RESURRECTION FORCE

Reflection on John 20:1-9

If you study the Gospel stories about the Resurrection, you notice that they are not primarily about what happened to Jesus, but what happened to His followers, and through them, what happens to us.

For instance, when Jesus appeared to the women, He told them to hurry and tell the disciples to meet Him in Galilee. And when Thomas demanded to touch Him, the story is not so much about Jesus but about Thomas – and us, the people who have not seen Jesus, yet still believe.

The Resurrection of Jesus is a continuing event, an evolution, a revolution, a reaching through the centuries to embrace us here and now, with its power and grace, inviting us to grasp it (or better, be grasped by it) and live new possibilities of love and understanding and compassion. And when we grasp it, or it grasps us, we carry forward its force!

~ Fr. Jay

Easter Prayer: Easter Morning

by Franklin Pierce Carrigan

The bells in the steeples are sending
Glad messages out on the air;
For the night is ended forever,

And the day breaks everywhere:
O night that was long and lonely!
O day that will know no care!

Above the vibrant bell-music
The perfumes of flowers rise —
The incense from nature's green altars,
Ascending like truth to the skies:
O incense sweet and prayer-breathing
From hearts that adore and are wise!

O hearts of the world that are many
As stars in the heavens above!
Christ wants you, and needs you,
and seeks you
In charity, pity and love:
O hearts of the world, He forgives you,
And sends you His peace-bearing dove!
