ALWAYS*Reflection on Luke 24:46-53*

We will naturally say good-bye when we have to take leave of someone. And when we have a great affection for someone from whom we are taking our leave, we will naturally express our affection in some way, as well as our feelings over the loss of their company. In His ascension into heaven, Jesus leaves this world, in His Resurrected presence, with a promise: "I am with you always, until the end of the world."

"I am with you always" is no vague promise. The promise is made concrete in the outpouring of the Holy Spirit we will encounter next Sunday on the Feast of Pentecost. And the Holy Spirit is encountered in so many ways!

How is Jesus "with us"? How is Jesus present to us? In His Living Word in Scripture. In His abiding presence in the unique gift of each person. In His Church. In the poor and downtrodden. In the Communion of Saints. In the beauty, truth and goodness of all of creation. In the most precious gift of the Eucharist. Literally, you cannot look anywhere without encountering Jesus.

A Prayer for the Ascension of the Lord

*Look upon us, O Lord, and let all the darkness of our souls
vanish before the beams of Your brightness.*

*Fill us with holy love,
and open to us the treasures of Your wisdom.
All our desire is known to You,
So, perfect what you have begun,
and what Your Spirit has awakened us to ask.*

We seek Your face, turn Your face unto us and show us Your glory.

*Only then will our longing be satisfied,
and our peace shall be perfect.*

– St. Augustine, 354-430AD

THE GOSPEL OF MATTHEW:

THE KING AND HIS KINGDOM

The Book of Matthew brings the history of Christ to life. We see Jesus as the awaited Messiah, who fulfills the promises and prophecies of the Old Testament, establishes the New Law, and inaugurates the Kingdom of Heaven. Matthew: The King and His Kingdom explores how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to a new level of holiness and shows how we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church, to live it. The Transfiguration Center will be going through Matthew: The King and His Kingdom Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation, followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, contact Ron at 937-698-7180 or rmills@transfigurationcenter.com. There is no charge for the class, but if you would like to purchase a workbook (not necessary) to go along with the course, it can be purchased at ascensionpress.com.
