RENEWAL

Reflection on John 20:19-23

On this Solemnity of Pentecost, after celebrating fifty days of Easter in which we were invited to a great renewal of faith, the Church draws us into accepting the Lord's peace. "Peace be with you," Jesus says to those fearful disciples hiding out behind locked doors. "Peace be with you," Jesus proclaims to us as an invitation to receive and cooperate with the Holy Spirit for the transformation of the world.

On this day we are given the peace that the world cannot give, because it comes from beyond the grave, where no fear or torment or violence can exist. Only this gift of the Lord's peace can prepare us, can open us up, can make us malleable enough to receive the gifts of the Spirit. In the Resurrection, God has restored a union between all creation and Himself; division caused by sin has been conquered. There is now, an enduring peace and reconciliation available to us!

Within this peace, the Spirit, with so many wonderful gifts to pour into our hearts and lives, sends us who are followers of Jesus on the missionary work of forgiving sins, sharing God's gift of mercy, enabling that reconciliation which is the furtherance of God's Kingdom. Will you join the mission?

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT BARNABAS

Feast Day: June 11

Patron Saint of Cyprus

Barnabas, a Jew of Cyprus, comes as close as anyone outside the Twelve to being a full-fledged apostle. He was closely associated with Saint Paul – he introduced Paul to Peter and the other apostles – and served as a kind of mediator between the former persecutor and the still suspicious Jewish Christians.

When a Christian community developed at Antioch, Barnabas was sent as the official representative of the church of Jerusalem to incorporate them into the fold. He and Paul instructed in Antioch for a year, after which they took relief contributions to Jerusalem.

Later, Paul and Barnabas, now clearly seen as charismatic leaders, were sent by Antioch officials to preach to the gentiles. Enormous success crowned their efforts. After a miracle at Lystra, the people wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods – Barnabas being Zeus, and Paul, Hermes – but the two said, "We are of the same nature as you, human beings. We proclaim to you good news that you should turn from these idols to the living God" (see Acts 14:8-18).

But all was not peaceful. They were expelled from one town, they had to go to Jerusalem to clear up the ever-recurring controversy about circumcision, and even the best of friends can have differences. When Paul wanted to revisit the places they had evangelized, Barnabas wanted to take along his cousin John Mark, author of the Gospel, but Paul insisted that since Mark had deserted them once, he was not fit to take along now. The disagreement that followed was so sharp that Barnabas and Paul separated: Barnabas taking Mark to Cyprus, Paul taking Silas to Syria. Later they were reconciled – Paul, Barnabas and Mark.

When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, we learn that "even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy" (see Galatians 2:1-13).
