SUMMER TALK WITH FR. JOE KOZARBIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH – THE TABERNACLE & THE NEW COVENANT

Come join us for Lemonade, cookies and a talk by Fr. Joe on Sunday, July 17th at 6:30 p.m. in the church undercroft. In our last Bible Study, Fulfilled, we saw how Jesus fulfills the Old Testament and we explored the Biblical roots of the Catholic Faith. We still had some questions and asked Fr. Joe to come help answer some of our questions and how we can examine our own faith and be able to share it with others as we see God's plan laid out. You do not have to have attended the Bible Study to learn and enjoy this evening with Fr. Joe. We all love to hear his explanation of Scripture. Hope you can attend.

NEIGHBORS

Reflection on Luke 10:25-37

"And who is my neighbor?" Such a simple, seemingly innocent question. And yet it elicits the most familiar and loved story that we have been so taken by that we have named hospitals and laws after "the good Samaritan."

In two of Jesus' greatest stories – the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son – the motivation of the main characters is compassion. The father sees his son from a distance and, moved by compassion, runs to welcome him. The Samaritan sees the man in the ditch and, moved by compassion, stops to bind his wounds and bring him to safety. Without this moment of compassion, the father remains on the hill and the Samaritan goes about his business.

The kind of love of neighbor and capacity for compassion called for in the Gospel requires cultivation, and open heart, and overcoming of preoccupation with ourselves and our instinctive withdrawal from pain, suffering and inconvenience. For a person stripped, beaten, lying half-dead in a ditch is a gross inconvenience. Unless you love him. The only times we will find our neighbor are when we are loving and generous enough to become one.

SAINT BENEDICT

Feast Day: July 11

Patron Saint of Europe, Kidney Disease, Monastics, Poisoning, and Schoolchildren

Benedict was born into a distinguished family in central Italy, studied at Rome, and early in life was drawn to monasticism. At first he became a hermit, leaving a depressing world – pagan armies on the march, the Church torn by schism, people suffering from war, morality at a low ebb.

He soon realized that he could not live a hidden life in a small town any better than in a large city, so he withdrew to a cave high in the mountains for three years. Some monks chose Benedict as their leader for a while, but found his strictness not to their taste. Still the shift from hermit to community life had begun for him. He had an idea of gathering various families of monks into one "Grand Monastery" to give them the benefit of unity, fraternity, and permanent worship in one house. Finally, he began to build what was to become one of the most famous monasteries in the world – Monte Cassino, commanding three narrow valleys running toward the mountains north of Naples.

The Rule that gradually developed prescribed a life of liturgical prayer, study, manual labor, and living together in community under a common abbot. Benedictine asceticism is known for its moderation, and Benedictine charity has always shown concern for the people in the surrounding countryside.

Today, the Benedictine family is represented by two branches: the Benedictine Federation encompassing the men and women of the Order of St. Benedict; and the Cistercians, men and women of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance.

The Church has been blessed through Benedictine devotion to the liturgy, not only in its actual celebration with rich and proper ceremony in the great abbeys, but also through the scholarly studies of many of its members. Liturgy is sometimes confused with guitars or choirs, Latin or Bach. We should be grateful to those who both preserve and adapt the genuine tradition of worship in the Church.
