FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM CATHOLIC LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE...

In a recent bulletin article, I shared information about a new program for our family of parishes called Next Generation Parish. In this article, I would like to share more of the details of this program.

There are four phases to the program that will take place over a three to four-year timeframe. The first phase is the preparation phase. This includes orientation and seminars for the pastor, the vicars, key leaders of the parish, coaching for the pastor and the Disciple Maker Index survey. The Disciple Maker Index is a survey (to be done this October) designed to benchmark parish health spiritually, organizationally, financially and sacramentally. Phase two is to Envision and Plan. A facilitated planning process to clarify direction, activities, and allocation of resources, which will be modified to support the 31 parameters of the Beacons of Light. Phase Three is Implementation, in which parish structures and ministries will be aligned with the pastoral priorities and goals. Work will be done to refine parish practices to support a culture of missionary discipleship. The final phase is to assess, learn and plan again. The Disciple Maker Index will be completed a second time to assess parish growth, to determine what worked and didn't work, to celebrate successes and to begin planning for the next three years.

BEACONS CORNER

St. Patrick Catholic Church WELCOMES:

Fr. Eric Bowman, Fr. Steven Shoup,

Fr. Matthew Lee and Fr. Jim Duell.

There will be a reception to greet our priests of NW-6 following the 7:30 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Masses every Sunday during August. It will be held in the church undercroft. Come and personally welcome each of our priests. Light refreshments will be served.

FROM OUR SUMMER SEMINARIAN

I truly enjoyed the time we spent together over the summer and the opportunities that have been afforded us to get to know each other. For myself, personally, the summers give me the chance to get to know more parishes and priests, but also the ability to serve and share what knowledge I have been entrusted to pass on. It is the active living of the Body of Christ in the Church, which is all of the baptized, that I get to experience intimately over the summers that strengthens my vocation and my resolve to be a priest. It has been through the serving and ministering of the needs of the parishes that has helped me develop pastorally and imitate Christ. I have had the chance to pray with you and see what challenges lie ahead, especially with the struggle that we all face, Beacons of Light. While I cannot be here to continue to pray and help you through these times, I can pray for you all while I continue my studies. We have to keep in mind that while things may seem bleak, it is always Christ Who guides. So, during these times of uncertainty, pray, pray, pray.

Yours in Christ,

Seminarian Nicholas Emmerling

THE COST

Reflection on Luke 12:49-53

One of the earliest available Greek calendars is based on a list of the winners of important Olympic contests. So when he wishes to encourage his audience, the author of the letter to the Hebrews, who is a cultured man, can think of no stronger metaphor than a marathon runner. Just as this runner uses all his strength to win the race, so the disciple of Jesus must use all his resources to be a champion of virtue.

Jesus says, unapologetically, that His coming provokes division. St. John puts the matter slightly differently: "The light has come into the world, but [people] hated the light, because their deeds were bad." The disciple, like Jesus, is a light for the world, a light that throws shadows into sharp relief.

The point of both these readings is both plain and painful: following Jesus faithfully costs something. If our legs are not aching and our lungs not afire from our efforts to complete the twenty-sixth mile; or if our clothes are immaculate because no one has ever even thought of tossing us down a cistern for living God's Word; if we lack Jesus' enthusiasm for casting fire upon the earth; in short, if professing discipleship has cost us nothing lately, how faithful are we being to the call?

~ Fr. Jay

a hymn to our God.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

FORMED® If you are looking for some good spiritual programs, books, movies, and family entertainment, be sure to check out FORMED. Just find St. Patrick Church, Troy and start watching.

FALL BIBLE STUDY – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance

One of the most remarkable things about our Faith is that by God's grace, we have become His adopted sons and daughters. In your day-to-day life, what does it mean to be a son or daughter of God – an heir to His promises and blessings? When you sit in the pews each Sunday, what does it mean to you to be part of His family, the Church? To help you uncover this meaning, St. Patrick will begin an eight-week Bible Study – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, visit ascensionpress.com and order the Study Set at $29.95 plus shipping. For questions, contact Pat Smith at the parish office or rsmith3055@aol.com. You will not only discover your unique gifts and calling as a member of Christ's Church; you will also help us to grow in fellowship as a parish as we grow closer to Christ together. We offer two sets of times:

- Sundays at 6:00 p.m., starting September 11, 2022, or
- Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m., starting September 14, 2022

Session runs for eight weeks, meeting in Church Undercroft.

GRIEFSHARE

No matter what the circumstances, grief recovery is a painful process. St. Patrick Church will be offering GriefShare, a seminar and support group to our parish and local community. This is a weekly seminar/support group for people grieving the loss of a loved one by death. It's a place where you can be around people who understand how you are feeling and are able to offer you encouragement. At GriefShare, you will learn valuable information that will help you through this difficult time in your life. We will feature videotape seminar sessions with nationally recognized experts on grief and recovery topics. The next sessions begin September 7. We meet weekly for 13 weeks. We offer an afternoon session at 1:00 p.m. or an evening session at 7:00 p.m. Meetings are held in St. Patrick Parish Center, upstairs in Room 3; 444 East Water Street, Troy. You are welcome to just come and check it out. Registration is not required.

Mark your calendars for Loss of a Spouse, Saturday, August 27, 10:00-11:30 a.m. Our GriefShare Team will be offering Loss of a Spouse to those grieving the death of a spouse. You will hear practical advice from others who've been there: what to expect in your grief, how to cope with life without your spouse, why it won't always hurt this much. Please join us for this encouraging seminar. Everyone who attends receives a booklet with over 30 short readings on how to live with grief and eventually rebuild your life.
