FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

In a previous bulletin article, I informed you that Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes would be working with an organization called Catholic Leadership Institute. As part of their work with our family of parishes, the company assigned Kate Sell to serve as consultant. Here is Kate's biography.

Mission Advancement Partners: Founder and Managing Partner

Kate Sell is an organizational and communications strategist with more than 15 years of experience in business and nonprofit consulting. Her experience in the Catholic sphere throughout the United States and abroad brings a unique perspective to those serving the "Pope Francis Church." By assisting organizations to better understand the Catholic landscape in the 21st Century, Kate is able to guide organizations to more effectively live their unique mission with innovative evangelistic strategy and to utilize their resources to most effectively communicate to serve the needs of the modern Church.

Having worked with for-profit companies, national nonprofits, bishops, dioceses, parishes, Newman/campus ministry centers, Catholic schools and ministry-based organizations, Kate has experience in all phases of organizational change and development, as well as the communications strategy and messaging necessary to bring initiatives to the forefront. Her expertise in planning and strategy provides clarity and focus to organizational growth and transition while equipping clients to maximize resources – human, time, and capital. In addition, Kate's reputation for communication strategy and messaging ensures that project, campaign, or organizational identities reach target audiences with specific messaging that resonates with their needs and invites them to learn more.

Specialties include organizational management, communications strategy and PR, event planning, and strategic planning in the areas of Catholic schools, marketing, organizational, and fundraising.

A convert to the Catholic faith in 1999, Kate lives in Atlanta, GA with her husband Bryan and their five children.

JESUS AT THE CENTER

Reflection on Luke 14:25-33

These sayings by Jesus in Luke's Gospel about the necessity of renunciation of family and possessions for discipleship are certainly provocative. How do we understand them? Is Jesus advocating some kind of life which pretends that we do not have material needs and bodily needs and relational needs?

Perhaps the best way to understand these sayings is in the simple question: What do we place at the center of our lives? All else circles around it and is peripheral; all else takes its meaning and purpose from what is at the center.

If we have nothing at the center, our lives will be random and meaningless. If we place something other than God at the center – whether it's a drive for wealth or a human relationship or any other obsession – that will shape a life that looks in all its parts like anxious striving.

Jesus proposes Himself as that center, so that everything else about our lives takes shape and gets its meaning and purpose from the command to love. I think of the words of St. John of the Cross here: "In the twilight of our life God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human success, but rather on how much we have loved."

~ Fr. Jay

NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Feast Day: September 8

The Church has celebrated Mary's birth since at least the sixth century. A September birth was chosen because the Eastern Church begins its Church year with September. The September 8 date helped determine the date for the feast of the Immaculate Conception on December 8.

Scripture does not give an account of Mary's birth. However, the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James fills in the gap. According to this account, Anna and Joachim are infertile but pray for a child. They receive the promise of a child who will advance God's plan of salvation for the world. Such a story, like many biblical counterparts, stresses the special presence of God in Mary's life from the beginning. Saint Augustine connects Mary's birth with Jesus' saving work. He tells the earth to rejoice and shine forth in the light of her birth. "She is the flower of the field from whom bloomed the precious lily of the valley. Through her birth the nature inherited from our first parents is changed." The opening prayer at Mass speaks of the birth of Mary's Son as the dawn of our salvation, and asks for an increase of peace.

We can see every human birth as a call for new hope in the world. The love of two human beings has joined with God in His creative work. The loving parents have shown hope in a world filled with travail. The new child has the potential to be a channel of God's love and peace to the world.

This is all true in a magnificent way in Mary. If Jesus is the perfect expression of God's love, Mary is the foreshadowing of that love. If Jesus has brought the fullness of salvation, Mary is its dawning.

Next to the birth of Jesus, Mary's birth offers the greatest possible happiness to the world. Each time we celebrate her birth, we can confidently hope for an increase of peace in our hearts and in the world at large.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

FALL BIBLE STUDY – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance

One of the most remarkable things about our Faith is that by God's grace, we have become His adopted sons and daughters. In your day-to-day life, what does it mean to be a son or daughter of God – an heir to His promises and blessings? When you sit in the pews each Sunday, what does it mean to you to be part of His family, the Church? To help you uncover this meaning, St. Patrick will begin an eight-week Bible Study – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, visit ascensionpress.com and order the Study Set at $29.95 plus shipping. For questions, contact Pat Smith at the parish office or rsmith3055@aol.com. You will not only discover your unique gifts and calling as a member of Christ's Church, you will also help us to grow in fellowship as a parish as we grow closer to Christ together.

We offer two sets of times: Sundays at 6:00 p.m., starting September 11, 2022, or Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m., starting September 14, 2022. Session runs for eight weeks, meeting in Church Undercroft.
