MUSTARD SEED FAITH

Reflection on Luke 17:5-10

The lesson for us in the parable of the mustard seed is clear and simple: even a little faith in Jesus can achieve unimaginable outcomes. Examples of mustard seed faith abound throughout the centuries, from Francis of Assisi, to Charles Lwanga, to Mother Teresa. From small, humble beginnings have come remarkable movements: the Franciscan Order, a continent on fire for Christ, communities of sisters ministering to the poorest of the poor everywhere in the world.

Let us cling to our mustard seed faith, and keep on planting it here and there. Like the examples mentioned above, and countless others, we cannot see clearly God's coming reign. But coming it is! "The vision still has its time, it presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint; if it delays, wait for it, for it will surely come." God acts through our tiniest beachhead of faith. For us who follow Christ, this really is the only source of coherence and meaning and life in this world.

SAINT MARIA FAUSTINA KOWALSKA

Feast Day: October 5

Apostle of Divine Mercy

Saint Faustina's name is forever linked to the annual feast of the Divine Mercy, the Divine Mercy chaplet, and the Divine Mercy prayer recited each day at 3:00 p.m. by many people.

Born in what is now west-central Poland, Helena Kowalska was the third of 10 children. She worked as a housekeeper in three cities before joining the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy in 1925. In addition to carrying out her work faithfully, generously serving the needs of the sisters and the local people, Sister Faustina also had a deep interior life. This included receiving revelations from the Lord Jesus, messages that she recorded in her diary at the request of Christ and of her confessors.

At a time when some Catholics had an image of God as such a strict judge that they might be tempted to despair about the possibility of being forgiven, Jesus chose to emphasize His mercy and forgiveness for sins acknowledged and confessed. "I do not want to punish aching mankind," He once told Saint Faustina, "but I desire to heal it, pressing it to my merciful heart." The two rays emanating from Christ's heart, she said, represent the blood and water poured out after Jesus' death.

Because Sister Maria Faustina knew that the revelations she had already received did not constitute holiness itself, she wrote in her diary: "Neither graces, nor revelations, nor raptures, nor gifts granted to a soul make it perfect, but rather the intimate union of the soul with God. These gifts are merely ornaments of the soul, but constitute neither its essence nor its perfection. My sanctity and perfection consist in the close union of my will with the will of God."

Sister Maria Faustina died of tuberculosis in Krakow, Poland, on October 5, 1938. Pope John Paul II beatified her in 1993, and canonized her seven years later.

This is a weekly seminar/support group for people grieving the cessation of a close personal relationship by death. At GriefShare, you'll learn valuable information that will help you through this difficult time in your life. The videotape sessions will be watched online. We will meet in person for discussion of the topic addressed each week. All sessions will meet in the St. Patrick Church Parish Center, 444 East Water Street, Troy, upstairs in Room 3. We offer two sessions: 1:00-2:30 p.m. or 7:00-8:30 p.m. Sessions meet each Wednesday for 13 weeks. Registration is not necessary.

For questions, please call Pat Smith at the church office at 335-2833, ext. 2008.

FALL BIBLE STUDY – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance

One of the most remarkable things about our Faith is that by God's grace, we have become His adopted sons and daughters. In your day-to-day life, what does it mean to be a son or daughter of God – an heir to His promises and blessings? When you sit in the pews each Sunday, what does it mean to you to be part of His family, the Church? To help you uncover this meaning, St. Patrick will begin an eight-week Bible Study – Ephesians: Discover Your Inheritance this Fall. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register, visit ascensionpress.com and order the study set at $29.95 plus shipping. For questions, contact Pat Smith at the parish office or rsmith3055@aol.com. You will not only discover your unique gifts and calling as a member of Christ's Church, you will also help us to grow in fellowship as a parish as we grow closer to Christ together. We offer two sets of times: Sundays at 6:00 p.m., which started September 11, 2022, or Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m., which started September 14, 2022. Session runs for eight weeks, meeting in the Church Undercroft.
