FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

WHAT'S NEXT FOR OUR FAMILY OF PARISHES...?

The next step in our journey with Catholic Leadership Institute to becoming one parish family is the Disciple Maker Index (DMI). The Disciple Maker Index is a survey tool that invites parishioners to reflect on where they are on their journey of discipleship and identify their parish's effectiveness in supporting that journey. Utilizing a unique, cutting-edge technology, the tool gathers comprehensive feedback about parishioners' spiritual growth through 75 questions. The resulting insight is invaluable: it enables parish leadership to make data-driven decisions regarding priorities that will ultimately help parishioners grow in faith. As of 2018, the tool has been used in more than 400 parishes in 20 dioceses throughout the United States and Canada. More than 100,000 parishioners have participated, providing a rich resource of helpful benchmarks from parishes of all settings and sizes.

So, the question on your mind might be, "Why should I participate?" Your responses will give us a wealth of information and feedback. The data will be an invaluable asset to the pastor and key parish leaders. The data will help give clarity on our path toward setting priorities and goals to grow our parishes.

Over the next few weeks, there will be opportunities to take the Disciple Maker Index either electronically, which is preferred, or with a hard copy. I am asking everyone to take the time, about 20 minutes, to take the Disciple Maker Index.

BEACONS CORNER

Information on the Disciple Maker Index Survey (DMI) can be found on the insert today in the bulletin and on the St. Patrick Church website. Go to <https://portal.catholicleaders.org/d/y79k33> to complete the survey. Paper copies can be found in the Narthex. Additional opportunities to fill out the survey on Fellowship Sunday weekends of October 29th/30th and November 19th/20th.

I AM A SINNER

Reflection on Luke 18:9-14

This parable shatters the looking glasses in which good people are contemplating their own goodness. If one must concentrate on oneself at all, the only path to follow is blazed by the tax collector: "I am a sinner." Though an ugly and painful recognition, it leads us to turn our gaze to the beauty of God's mercy. No sin is beyond the reach of God's forgiveness. If a person can confess their weakness, God will carry them. If a person can admit that their heart is empty, God will fill it.

When, like the Pharisee, we are decked out in virtues that deserve to be admired, we run the risk of fixating on our virtues because they are ours, rather than seeking the God whose beauty is dimly reflected in them. The tax collector, on the other hand, having nothing to brag about, runs less risk of self-delusion. Knowing his nakedness, he can only turn to God for mercy; and like that other sinner who begged to be remembered, he can therefore hear the promise, "You shall be with me in paradise."

SAINT ANTHONY MARY CLARET

Feast Day: October 24

Patron Saint of: Weavers

The "spiritual father of Cuba" was a missionary, religious founder, social reformer, queen's chaplain, writer and publisher, archbishop, and refugee. He was a Spaniard whose work took him to the Canary Islands, Cuba, Madrid, Paris, and to the First Vatican Council. Ordained at 28, he was prevented by ill health from entering religious life as a Carthusian or as a Jesuit, but went on to become one of Spain's most popular preachers.

Anthony spent 10 years giving popular missions and retreats, always placing great emphasis on the Eucharist and devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It was said that his rosary was never out of his hand. At age 42, he founded a religious institute of missionaries beginning with five young priests, known today as the Claretians.

Anthony was appointed to head the much-neglected archdiocese of Santiago in Cuba. He began its reform by almost ceaseless preaching and hearing of confessions, and suffered bitter opposition mainly for opposing concubinage and giving instruction to black slaves. He was recalled to Spain for a job he did not relish—being chaplain for the queen. Anthony went on three conditions: He would reside away from the palace; he would come only to hear the queen's confession and instruct the children; and he would be exempt from court functions. In the revolution of 1868, he fled to Paris with the queen's party, where he preached to the Spanish colony.

At Vatican I, where he was a staunch defender of the doctrine of infallibility, Anthony won the admiration of his fellow bishops. Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore remarked of him, "There goes a true saint." At the age of 63, he died in exile near the border of Spain.

SCHOOL NEWS

On October 7th, our Run Club held their end-of-season run at Duke Park. The pictures show the top three of both our boys and girls. First place for our boys was Anthony Cianciolo, second place was Simon Goubeaux, and third place was Caleb Unger. First place for our girls was Allie Gutman, second place was Lucy Harris and third place was Luciana Barsotti. I've never seen so much excitement in the students for this race! I believe we had close to 75 students participating in this first quarter Run Club. They practiced every Monday and Wednesday running a marked course around the block of the school. I want to thank Alison Cianciolo, who helped coach and organize the Run Club for us. I want to thank her husband, Tony, for cheering the kids on and being able to push the kids to do their best. There were a few times as I was walking out to my car when Mr. Cianciolo was cheering the kids on and it was so positive that I almost jumped in and started running myself!! I also want to thank all the staff and all the volunteers who ran with the kids and who stood at all the points along the run, keeping the students safe. Can't wait to see what happens in the spring with the next round of Run Club!

I will leave you this week with a quote from a book entitled, Be Still by Lisa Brenninkmeyer. It's a 365-day devotional you can also find on the Hallow app. "Dear Lord, please give me insight as to how my decisions today are preparing me for heaven. Amen."

Have a wonderful week.

Blessings,

Cyndi Cathcart
