SECOND COLLECTION FOR THE U.S. MILITARY SERVICES

Next weekend, we will be taking a second collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services USA. The collection is approved by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops to be taken every three years to increase awareness of the mission, "Serving those who serve." Additional information and envelopes can be found in the brochure rack at the entrance to church.

We are blessed with a priest who unfortunately is deathly allergic to many things and, pertinent to us, flowers. Father Lee can and has gone into anaphylactic shock due to serious allergies. Many of us augment the statues at church with offerings from our gardens. The flowers that are acceptable to have in church are tulips, carnations and roses. Please keep this in mind so that we keep Father Lee safe and healthy.

FORGIVENESS

Reflection on Luke 19:1-10

We hear that Zacchaeus is "seeking to see Jesus," and discover that Jesus, with even more ardor, is seeking Zacchaeus, to embrace him and dine with him. What a wonder is God's patience with us sinners as we figure out how to respond to His love and mercy! It is even more of a wonder to know that God uses this sinner (me), as He did Zacchaeus, to teach others about forgiveness.

Sometimes we aren't so happy to see people whose sins are different from ours dining at the same table of the Lord with us. But Jesus, the source of love, the wellspring of mercy, the hope of sinners, is seeking each and every human person, urging all of human history toward a perfect union with our Creator. In Jesus, God is gathering up the fragments, seeking out the lost, that nothing and no one may be wasted.

Maybe we each have to see ourselves as Zacchaeus, and each see ourselves as the self-righteous who do not want a sinner near us, and each see ourselves as Christ, with an embrace wide enough to accept anyone looking for the Lord.

~ Fr. Jay
