WITH US UNTIL THE END

Reflection on Luke 21:5-19

The temple, a symbol of God's presence on earth and of His covenant with the Israelites, was totally destroyed ("the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down") during the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 C.E. Luke's Gospel was written sometime in the 80's, and I wonder if the impact of this on the Jewish world at the time was similar to the shock on 9/11 in our time. Certainly, Luke's hearers were experiencing a time of great national distress.

The apocalyptic imagery used here is certainly distressing, but this passage and others like it are not predictive, revealing what is to come, but rather reveal to us what is now the case. Jesus is not so much speaking about the end of times, but about the condition of every time, in this in-between time.

The important message is perseverance and endurance, clinging to the promise of Jesus to be with us always, even to the end of the age. Though temples fall and wars and persecutions rage, "...not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance you will secure your lives."

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT MARGARET OF SCOTLAND

Feast Day: November 16

Patron Saint of: Service to the poor

Not Scottish by birth, Margaret was the daughter of Princess Agatha of Hungary and the Anglo-Saxon Prince Edward Atheling. Her family fled from William the Conqueror and was shipwrecked off the coast of Scotland. King Malcolm befriended them and was captivated by the beautiful, gracious Margaret. They were married at the castle of Dunfermline in 1070.

Malcolm was good-hearted, but rough and uncultured, as was his country. Because of Malcolm's love for Margaret, she was able to soften his temper, polish his manners, and help him become a virtuous king. He left all domestic affairs to her, and often consulted her in state matters.

Margaret tried to improve her adopted country by promoting the arts and education. For religious reform she encouraged synods and was present for the discussions which tried to correct religious abuses common among priests. With her husband, she founded several churches.

She had certain times for prayer and reading Scripture. She ate sparingly and slept little in order to have time for devotions. She and Malcolm kept two Lents, one before Easter and one before Christmas. During these times she always rose at midnight for Mass. On the way home she would wash the feet of six poor persons and give them alms. She was always surrounded by beggars in public and never refused them. It is recorded that she never sat down to eat without first feeding nine orphans and 24 adults.

Margaret's outstanding virtue was her love of the poor. Although very generous with material gifts, Margaret also visited the sick and nursed them with her own hands.
