THE LORD IS COMING

Reflection on Matthew 11:2-11

A message of hope resounds through the readings for this third Sunday of Advent. Isaiah's word of hope came nearly three millennium ago to people suffering the turmoil and indignity of invasion by the Assyrians: Fear not! You will see the glory and splendor of the Lord who will come to save you! James encourages his community with yet more words of hope: Be patient! Do not lose heart! The Lord's coming will be soon!

And the message of hope comes to us in the response of Jesus to John's questions from a Galilean jail. John, who proclaimed the coming wrath of God and pointed to the One coming who is stronger than he, now sits in Herod's prison awaiting death because he spoke truth to power. Is John questioning his life's work? Perhaps, to a degree, but his question to Jesus: "Are you the one?" sets up the response of Jesus, a hope-filled message describing what His ministry will look like: the blind see, cripples walk, lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the poor have the Good News preached to them. Echoing the dream and vision of Isaiah and all the prophets, the Kingdom of God comes to rule our hearts and the world. We who are privileged to be least in God's Kingdom continue this mission and message of hope.

SCHOOL

This past week was such a fun week. On Monday, St. Nick visited the students and passed out candy canes. We learned a lot about St. Nick! We also had our Christmas Shoppe for the students to buy gifts for their families. Thank you, Mrs. Whetstone, for organizing this and all of your volunteers for your help. The staff held its annual Christmas party at the Troy Hayner on the 6th. It was a wonderful evening spending time with a wonderful group of people. On December 15th, we will have our school Christmas Program. Grades K-8 will be participating along with our students in the 5-8 grade band program. December 16 is our last day before Christmas break. I hope your Advent is blessed and you are all preparing your hearts for the coming of Our Savior.

Pray, hope and don't worry! – St. Pio

The preschool classes have been preparing for the coming of Baby Jesus. We continue to pray for those who are sick. We offer God our fears, so we can be free to help one another. We wish you a wonderful Advent Season!
