Have you considered having a Mass said for a family member or friend, living or deceased? When we have a Mass said for a deceased person, we are presuming they are at least in purgatory and that the Mass will help lessen or ease the temporal punishment due to their sins. Normally, the custom is to have a Mass on the anniversary of the death or near to it. You may also want to have it said on the anniversary of their birthdate. A Mass can be said for a donation of $5.00. You can contact the Parish office with the names of your loved ones and we will work to accommodate your date requests.

CREATED FOR A PURPOSE

Reflection on John 1:29-34

The Christmas season has come to an end and we enter now this brief portion of Ordinary Time that unfolds before the Lent/Easter season is upon us. In Ordinary Time we pay attention to the mission and ministry of Jesus in order to discover how each of us are called to be Christ's body in our time and place.

The prophet Isaiah tells us that we have been chosen and commissioned by God, "who formed me as his servant from the womb." And we recall how John the Baptist, featured in today's Gospel, leapt in his mother, Elizabeth's womb at the visitation of Mary, responding joyfully to the nearness of his cousin and our Lord, Jesus. Just as John was uniquely equipped by God for the mission he was given in life, so too are each of us equipped for our work, a process of formation and empowerment that began as we were formed in the wombs of our mothers, and indeed, has been part of God's design and plan for us even before time existed. Can you imagine yourself to be uniquely equipped, divinely fashioned, Spirit-driven for the work to which God calls you?

~ Fr. Jay

I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry.

Here am I, Lord:

I come to do your will.

SAINT ANTHONY OF EGYPT

Feast Day: January 17

Patron Saint of: Butchers and Gravediggers

At 20, Anthony was so moved by the Gospel message, "Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor" (Mark 10:21b), that he actually did just that with his large inheritance. Most of Anthony's life was spent in solitude. He saw the world completely covered with snares, and gave the Church and the world the witness of solitary asceticism, great personal mortification and prayer. But no saint is antisocial, and Anthony drew many people to himself for spiritual healing and guidance. At 54, he responded to many requests and founded a sort of monastery of scattered cells. At 60, he hoped to be a martyr in the renewed Roman persecution of 311, fearlessly exposing himself to danger while giving moral and material support to those in prison. At 88, he was fighting the Arian heresy, that massive trauma from which it took the Church centuries to recover. "The mule kicking over the altar" denied the divinity of Christ.

Anthony is associated in art with a T-shaped cross, a pig and a book. The pig and the cross are symbols of his valiant warfare with the devil – the cross his constant means of power over evil spirits, the pig a symbol of the devil himself. The book recalls his preference for "the book of nature" over the printed word. Anthony died in solitude at age 105.

In an age that smiles at the notion of devils and angels, a person known for having power over evil spirits must at least make us pause. And in a day when people speak of life as a "rat race," one who devotes a whole life to solitude and prayer points to an essential of the Christian life in all ages. Anthony's hermit life reminds us of the absoluteness of our break with sin and the totality of our commitment to Christ. Even in God's good world, there is another world whose false values constantly tempt us.

Founded by Christ Himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in His Word, His sacraments, and His saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation.
