HAVE YOU CONSIDERED HAVING A MASS SAID FOR A FAMILY MEMBER OR FRIEND, LIVING OR DECEASED?

When we have a Mass said for a deceased person, we are presuming they are at least in purgatory and that the Mass will help lessen or ease the temporal punishment due to their sins. Normally, the custom is to have a Mass on the anniversary of the death or near to it. You may also want to have it said on the anniversary of their birthdate. A Mass can be said for a donation of $5.00. You can contact the Parish office with the names of your loved ones and we will work to accommodate your date requests.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and confessions from 6:00-7:00 p.m. on Wednesday. We welcome you to come and spend some time in prayer and worship of Our Eucharistic Lord.

FOLLOW ME

Reflection on Matthew 4:12-23

What did Jesus see in these four fishermen? Did He see in them some special talent? A capacity to accomplish the work He had in mind for them? Jesus simply says, "Follow me; I have need of you," and without hesitation, they abandon their livelihoods and follow Him. Jesus does not interview them, or ask them to believe anything specific. They are not required to show some particular aptitude, or somehow convince Jesus that they are worthy of being His close followers and entrusted with the mission of Apostleship. They are invited, and they follow. Is this trust, or recklessness? Perhaps a bit of both.

What does Jesus see in me? What does Jesus see in any of us when He calls? And how do we respond?

These are good questions for reflection, but a deep truth revealed in every call and response is not so much our faith to follow as it is the fact that God believes in us. God looks at each of us and sees a beloved child, a likely ally, an able partner in proclaiming the Good News of God's Kingdom. At the end of every Mass we are told to, "Go and announce the Gospel," which is just a different way of Jesus saying to you and me: "Follow me." Are you convinced that your discipleship is deeply desired by God?

SAINT FRANCIS DE SALES

Feast Day: January 24

Patron Saint of: Authors, writers and journalists

Francis was destined by his father to be a lawyer so that the young man could eventually take his elder's place as a senator from the province of Savoy in France. For this reason Francis was sent to Padua to study law. After receiving his doctorate, he returned home and, in due time, told his parents he wished to enter the priesthood. His father strongly opposed Francis in this, and only after much patient persuasiveness on the part of the gentle Francis did his father finally consent. Francis was ordained and elected provost of the Diocese of Geneva, then a center for the Calvinists. Francis set out to convert them, especially in the district of Chablais. By preaching and distributing the little pamphlets he wrote to explain true Catholic doctrine, he had remarkable success.

At 35, he became bishop of Geneva. While administering his diocese he continued to preach, hear Confessions, and catechize the children. His gentle character was a great asset in winning souls. He practiced his own axiom, "A spoonful of honey attracts more flies than a barrelful of vinegar."

Besides his two well-known books, Introduction to the Devout Life and A Treatise on the Love of God, he wrote many pamphlets and carried on a vast correspondence. His writings, filled with his characteristic gentle spirit, are addressed to lay people. He wants to make them understand that they, too, are called to be saints. As he wrote in Introduction to the Devout Life: "It is an error, or rather a heresy, to say devotion is incompatible with the life of a soldier, a tradesman, a prince, or a married woman.... It has happened that many have lost perfection in the desert who had preserved it in the world."

SCHOOLCATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK: JANUARY 29-FEBRUARY 3

This is a week set aside every year to celebrate Catholic schools. St. Patrick Parish has been blessed to have an elementary school on site since 1888. We will celebrate 135 years this coming school year! A Catholic school not only forms students academically, but more importantly, students are given the opportunity to practice and live their faith daily. Students are formed spiritually and academically through the Gospels of Jesus Christ. Students are surrounded by a safe, nurturing atmosphere where they are taught the same values that families are teaching at home. We are directed by Jesus to go and make disciples of the nations; Catholic schools fulfill this by making disciples of our students. Catholic schools provide the opportunity for staff to develop our children in the best way possible to have a lifelong relationship with Jesus.

We have set aside two dates to come and take a tour, ask questions, and see what we do.

We will have an Open House in the school for all parishioners on January 29th from 12:30-2:00 p.m. On January 31st, we will have an Open House on Catholic education and St. Patrick School where you can come and ask questions and receive valuable information. Different booths will be set up to explore. This will be held in the cafeteria of the parish center from 6:15-7:30 p.m.

Blessings,
