A GIFT FOR EVERYONE

Reflection on Matthew 2:1-12

God calls all people to Himself, not just those of a particular time or place or tribe. This is affirmed in the prophecy of Isaiah – “Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance” – and clearly fulfilled in the visitation of the Magi to the babe in Bethlehem. The Epiphany Gospel story is rich with imagery and symbolism which point to the universal nature of Salvation.

We see here the seed of our Christian understanding of the sacramental nature of creation. The Magi followed a star in their journey to Jesus. The whole universe, all parts of God's creation, is a sign and sacrament of the divine presence. Creation offers us limitless gifts that reveal the radiance of God and particular calls that will invite and guide us into deeper journeys and thrilling adventures with Jesus.

Can we trust that all people today, no matter what their faith tradition or lack thereof may be, are being led by a star or some other gift of creation to recognize the God in whom we ultimately find our purpose, meaning and destiny? As disciples of Jesus, our evangelizing mission must necessarily embrace the reality that God makes Himself known in a variety of ways, speaking to humanity in a powerful manner through the gifts of the natural world.

SAINT HILARY OF POITIERS

Feast Day: January 13

Patron Saint of: Children with Disabilities

This staunch defender of the divinity of Christ was a gentle and courteous man, devoted to writing some of the greatest theology on the Trinity, and was like his Master in being labeled a “disturber of the peace.” In a very troubled period in the Church, his holiness was lived out in both scholarship and controversy. He was bishop of Poitiers in France.

Raised a pagan, he was converted to Christianity when he met his God of nature in the Scriptures. His wife was still living when he was chosen, against his will, to be the bishop of Poitiers in France. He was soon taken up with battling what became the scourge of the fourth century, Arianism, which denied the divinity of Christ.

The heresy spread rapidly. Saint Jerome said, “The world groaned and marveled to find that it was Arian.” When Emperor Constantius ordered all the bishops of the West to sign a condemnation of Athanasius, the great defender of the faith in the East, Hilary refused and was banished from France to far off Phrygia. Eventually, he was called the “Athanasius of the West.”

While writing in exile, he was invited by some semi-Arians (hoping for reconciliation) to a council the emperor called to counteract the Council of Nicea. But Hilary predictably defended the Church, and when he sought public debate with the heretical bishop who had exiled him, the Arians, dreading the meeting and its outcome, pleaded with the emperor to send this troublemaker back home. Hilary was welcomed by his people.

Christ said His coming would bring not peace but a sword (see Matthew 10:34). The Gospels offer no support for us if we fantasize about a sunlit holiness that knows no problems.
