FR. ERIC - RAMBLINGS

Reflections on Fatima 4 of 27 – The second angelic visit.

The second visit of the Angel of Peace was in the summer of 1916 and appeared at the well by Lucia's house. In the summer months, because of the extreme heat, the children would take the sheep out early in the mornings, bring them back home in the heat of the day and then take them back up the mountain in the evening. This scheduled allowed for the children to spend time each day playing or doing other chores. One of their favorite places was the cistern (the well) behind Lucia's house. This was well shaded, to keep the water cool. Here the children would play games and later (after the visits of Mary) they would spend time reflecting on all of the events of Fatima that had transpired. It was on one of these summer days that the angel appeared at the well and said: "What are you doing? Pray! Pray a great deal! The Hearts of Jesus and Mary have designs of mercy for you. Offer up prayers and sacrifices constantly to the Most High." In response to Lucia's question on how to make sacrifices, the angel responded: "make everything you do a sacrifice, and offer it up to God as an act of reparation for the sins by which He is offended, and in supplication for the conversion of sinners...above all accept and bear with submission the sufferings sent you by Our Lord."

Let's unpack this important visit. The first is the opening statement from the Angel: "what are you doing? Pray! Pray a great deal." The children were simply being children and playing, but the angel reminded them, and challenged them to stay focused on God. What a powerful reminder to all of us. We too must always stay focused on God and to 'Pray, pray a great deal'. We are called to offer our sacrifices and supplications to God always. I think for most Catholics, offering things up, make sacrifices, and fasting is reserved for Lent, but this statement from the angel reminds us that we are always to be sacrificing, and offering to God acts of reparations.

Now we turn our attention to the final visit from the angel.

FREEDOM THROUGH CHRIST

Reflection on Matthew 4:1-11

Matthew moves from Jesus' Baptism, where He was named God's Son – the Beloved, immediately to His journey of temptation in the desert, where He will be tested in His fidelity to this identity just revealed in the Jordan. Matthew tells us that Jesus was "led by the Spirit into the desert," which seems to me a holy promise that, no matter where we find ourselves, no matter how fast our circumstances may change (from Baptism – a spiritual high, to temptation – a difficult low), the Spirit of God never leaves our side.

In stark contrast to Adam and Eve's response to caving in to the devil's temptation in the Creation story, Jesus' reaction is steadfast in His fidelity to live only in the fullness of life that comes from union with God. Through Adam, we inherit sin; through Jesus, we are given freedom and life.

Lent, as a time of repentance, urges us to confront these same temptations Jesus confronted – food, safety, and power. We encounter versions of these all the time, and the temptation is to allow them to hold a central place in our lives, where they can take root and crowd out of our hearts the room that is only truly filled and fed in surrender to God.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE A LENTEN ANGEL?

Lent began on February 22. Once again, let us take this opportunity to reach out to a fellow parishioner during this Lenten Season. During Lent as a Lenten Angel you may remember this person with cards, letters, prayers, words of encouragement and cheer. At the conclusion of Lent you will let your person know who you are, maybe a new friend or someone you already know. Please fill out the form in the bookrack in the back of church or ramp door, place in baskets found at the doors. Then, on the weekend of February 25-26 pull one form out and that is who you will be a Lenten Angel to.

PLEASE be sure to take a form if you filled one out. If you choose to be a Lenten Angel we ask that you follow through and contact your person. Please don't disappoint. During Holy Week or Easter weekend you can then contact this person to let them know who you are. It is a fun way to pray for a fellow parishioner and possibly make a new friend.

We all need some encouragement these days. So simple and fun.

ARE YOU CELEBRATING A SIGNIFICANT WEDDING ANNIVERSARY IN 2023?

Request a certificate signed by Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr by visiting <https://www.centerforthenewevangelization.org/marriage-family/resources>.

Anniversary certificates will be mailed once a month through March 2023. For requests after March 1 through June 15, anniversary certificates will be mailed to your parish in late June 2023.

Questions? Contact the Marriage & Family Evangelization Office at cnd@catholicaoc.org.

RCIA

During Lent, RCIA Catechumens and Candidates enter a Period of Purification and Enlightenment. They are preparing for reception into the Catholic Church and the celebration of Easter Sacraments.

Do you or someone you know desire a closer relationship with Jesus Christ or have questions about the Catholic Church?

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

BIBLE STUDY - THE MASS SERIES BY BISHOP ROBERT BARRON

Hopefully, several of you are already watching each Sunday as suggested by Archbishop Schnurr for the diocese to do. We will watch the videos together and then have a discussion about what we watched. Hopefully, this will help us have a better understanding and refresh how powerful the Mass truly is. Continue watching on Sundays, but we will begin with Session 1. We will offer two sessions as we do the Bible Study, Sundays from 6:00-7:00 p.m. or Wednesdays from 9:00-10:00 a.m., both held in the church undercroft. We will meet for sessions on these dates. Sundays, February 26 and March 5; Wednesdays, March 1 and 8.

Please feel free to stop in at any time and no registration is necessary. Questions? Contact Pat Smith at 937-335-2833, ext. 2008 or rsmith3055@aol.com.

GRIEFSHARE NEW SESSIONS FOR 2023

No matter what the circumstances, grief recovery is a painful process. St. Patrick Church will be offering GriefShare, a seminar and support group to our parish and local community. This is a weekly seminar/support group for people grieving the loss of a loved one by death. It's a place where you can be around people who understand how you are feeling and are able to offer you encouragement. At GriefShare, you will learn valuable information that will help you through this difficult time in your life. We will feature videotape seminar sessions with nationally recognized experts on grief and recovery topics.

The sessions began on February 8th and we meet weekly for 13 weeks. We offer an afternoon session at 1:00 p.m. or an evening session at 7:00 p.m. Meetings are held in St. Patrick Parish Center, upstairs in Room 3 (444 East Water Street, Troy). You are welcome to just come and check it out. Registration is not required.
