FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

Reflections on Fatima 8 of 27: Preparing for the second visit of Our Lady
The second heavenly visit from Our Blessed Mother took place on June 13, 1917, the feast of St. Anthony of Padua, unless you are from Portugal, and there, he is known as St. Anthony of Lisbon. The feast day of St. Anthony is one of the biggest feasts in Portugal, with huge parties, especially among the young people.

But before we jump into the second heavenly visit, we need to revisit the May visit and the consequences of Jacinta's impulsive "We saw the beautiful lady." After the Blessed Mother left the children on May 13, 1917, the three seers, Lucia – 10, Francisco – 9, Jacinta – 7, all agreed not to tell anyone about seeing the Blessed Mother. But little Jacinta, probably inspired to do so, cried out to her parents, "we saw the beautiful lady." The results of this confession were brutal, to say the least, for Lucia. Her mother was convinced that she was lying and had convinced her two younger cousins' to join the lie, to get attention. Lucia's sister, Maria dos Anjos, recalled the following dialogue with her mother:

"Our mother knew well how Lucia loved the fiesta, and she hoped the whole story of the Cova da Iria would pass with it. It is a good thing that we are having St. Anthony tomorrow," she said, "and we mustn't say anything to Lucia about going to the Cova. We must talk of nothing but the feast so that by tomorrow, she will have forgotten the other foolishness." We were very careful to do what our mother told us, but of all our plans and preparations, Lucia seemed to take little notice. Except that once in a while, she would remind us, "Tomorrow, I'm going to the Cova da Iria; that is what the Lady told us we must do."

While Francisco and Jacinta's parents were not as hostile as Lucia's mother, they still could not understand why their children would choose "the lie" over the feast of St. Anthony.

Reflection on John 11:1-45

Few scenes give a more startling revelation of God's infinitely lavish power than the image of Lazarus at the entrance of his own grave, still swaddled in death's tight linens, but alive! And I imagine that the Lord's prophecy, put on the lips of Ezekiel, echoed in the ears of those who witnessed this marvel. "Then you will know that I am the Lord," he said, "when I open your graves and have you rise from them." Nothing is beyond God's power. It is never too late. With God's own Spirit within us, all things are possible. Easter will come.

While the story of the raising of Lazarus foreshadows Jesus' own Resurrection, there is more going on in the story, as is usual with John's Gospel. I think one of the most significant is the fact that Jesus involves the assistance of others in this raising from the dead miracle. He tells them to "take away the stone," to "unbind him" and to "let him go free." These are not simple requests, they are imperatives, commands that call for immediate action.

What are the stones that have become a barrier between living fully in Christ and what I keep to myself? What are the stones that are barriers between me and others, that hold my loving back? What part do we play in binding others, in preventing loving relationships to grow? There are many ways we can unbind others and let them go free – by forgiving them, through letting go of grudges and resentments and grievances. A helping hand, a loving word, a compassionate deed, can all begin the process of taking away the stone from the life of one who needs to be set free.

The Fifth Week of Lent

My loving Lord,

It's so hard to love the world sometimes and to love it the way Jesus did seems impossible.

Help me to be inspired by His love and guided by His example.

*Most of all, I want to accept that I can't do it alone,
and that trying is an arrogance of self-centeredness.
I need You, dear God, to give me support in this journey.
Show me how to unlock my heart
so that I am less selfish.*

*Let me be less fearful of the pain and darkness that will be transformed by You into Easter joy.
Amen.*

FROM THE BUSINESS MANAGER

Dear Parishioners, I would like to let you know that April 6th will be my last day as Business Manager of St. Patrick. During the last almost seven years here, we have made great strides in reducing our debt, restoring our credit and adding significantly to our investment savings at the Archdiocese. I am impressed with the commitment and dedication and generosity of you, the parishioners. Thank you for letting me be of service to you and know that you will remain in my prayers.

WHY WE BELIEVE: ANSWERING COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Is Catholicism true? Or is it just made up? How can I explain the faith to my family or friends who no longer believe? In this mind-blowing series, Dr. Brant Pitre takes up the most commonly asked questions about the Catholic faith and provides clear and compelling Biblical answers. He begins at the beginning – with the existence of God – and walks you step-by-step through the foundations of the faith. Along the way, Dr. Pitre explains: Does God Exist?, Is Jesus God?, Peter and the Papacy?, How Did We Get the Bible?, Is the Eucharist Jesus' Real Presence?, Why Confess to a Priest?, Do Catholics Worship Mary?, Purgatory and Prayers for the Dead?, etc. If you've ever been asked any of these questions but weren't quite sure how to answer – or if you know someone who has left the Church and no longer believes, then buckle up: this Bible Study is for you. In it, you'll discover how just reasonable, Biblical, and beautiful the Catholic faith really is. Classes will be on Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m. and Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. beginning April 4th and 5th, 2023 at the Transfiguration Center for Spiritual Renewal on Calumet Road in Ludlow Falls. There is no charge or book needed, but please call 937-698-7180 to register.
