FR. ERIC – RAMBLINGS

Reflections on Fatima 10 of 27

July 13th visit: overcoming the growing fear and doubt.

The July visit was probably the most important and the most challenging of the visits of Our Lady. As a result, we will spend the next few weeks looking at several aspects of the July visit.

As they drew closer to the appointed time for the July visit from Heaven, Lucia felt herself immersed more and more in a sea of anguish. At her meeting with the priest of Fátima, she had been received with the greatest courtesy and kindness. The priest had listened to her with deep attention. The simplicity and realism with which the little shepherd girl spoke of the events in the Cova da Iria left no room for doubt about her sincerity. But the priest's suggestion that it all might have come from the devil opened a wound in Lúcia's heart. "This could also be a deceit of the devil!" These words tore into her, and from that moment on she had no peace. "Only Our Lord knows how much these words made me suffer, for He alone can penetrate our inmost heart. I began then to have doubts that these manifestations might be from the devil, who was seeking in this way to make me lose my soul" (From Fatima in Lucia's own words).

As if this inner anxiety were not enough, her mother kept repeating to her that it was all from the devil, hoping that Lúcia would retract and admit that she had lied. In Lúcia's innocent child's mind, various events were mixed together, along with ideas she had gotten from the spiritual books that her family read together in the evening. Lúcia was an intelligent child, prone to reflection. When she was away from her cousins, taken up with household tasks or in the silence of the night, she turned this question over and over in her mind. The girl twisted and turned, unable to sleep because of her inner turmoil and the summer's heat. In light of what the priest had said, Lúcia began to analyze everything that had happened: "Since I heard it said that the devil always brings conflict and disorder, I began to think that ever since these things had happened, there was no more joy or peace in our house."

The next article will explore the impact of the fear and doubt growing in the heart of Lucia on Jacinta and Francisco.

WHY WE BELIEVE: ANSWERING COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Is Catholicism true? Or is it just made up? How can I explain the faith to my family or friends who no longer believe? In this mind-blowing series, Dr. Brant Pitre takes up the most commonly-asked questions about the Catholic faith and provides clear and compelling Biblical answers. He begins at the beginning – with the existence of God – and walks you step-by-step through the foundations of the faith. Along the way, Dr. Pitre explains: Does God Exist?, Is Jesus God?, Peter and the Papacy?, How Did We Get the Bible?, Is the Eucharist Jesus' Real Presence?, Why Confess to a Priest?, Do Catholics Worship Mary?, Purgatory and Prayers for the Dead?, etc.

If you've ever been asked any of these questions but weren't quite sure how to answer – or if you know someone who has left the Church and no longer believes, then buckle up: this Bible Study is for you. In it, you'll discover how just reasonable, Biblical, and beautiful the Catholic faith really is.

Classes will be on Tuesdays at 10:00 a.m. and Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. beginning April 4th and 5th, 2023 at the Transfiguration Center for Spiritual Renewal on Calumet Road in Ludlow Falls. There is no charge or book needed, but please call 937-698-7180 to register.

EASTER FAITH

Reflection on John 20:1-9

Knowing well the end of the story, it is difficult for us to imagine how it all unfolded for Mary Magdalene and Jesus' disciples as they were living it when it all happened. How does hope persist through the devastating grief of mourning a dear friend? How does love prevail over the heartbreaking trauma of witnessing such a gruesome and violent death? How do you interpret the stone which has been rolled away, the empty tomb, the burial clothes folded up?

Easter faith – placing our trust and joy in the Resurrection – invites us to embrace God's gift of hope and perseverance through every human trial and during our worst moments. Whatever life looks like in the moment, whatever darkness we pass through, whatever stone seems immovable, in every moment of death – God's love and mercy cannot be held back. When the power of the Resurrection grasps us, new possibilities of love, understanding and compassion are within reach.

~ Fr. Jay

PSALM 118:1 • EASTER 2023

My Gift of Lilies

I gathered the lilies from hillside and vale,
The beautiful lilies of Christ;
And thought of the time when the angel of God
With the Virgin held holiest tryst —
The time in the mystical long ago
That is olden and far away,
But comes to all with its memoried charm
To gladden the Easter Day.
I send you the beautiful lilies of Christ,
The lilies of solace and light;
And may their white chalices breathe you their peace
At morning, at noontime, and night;
And sift their sweet anther-dust over your dreams,
To steep them in beauty & shine —
I send you the beautiful lilies of Christ
The messengers of the Divine.
