Reflections on Fatima 20 of 27

August 13 continued: The Solemnity of Assumption

On the morning of Wednesday, August 15, the Feast of Our Lady's Assumption, the most tragic part of this drama took place. The children were again called to the office of the administrator and tempted with the promise of beautiful gold pieces if they would reveal the secret. Threats did not shake their resolve, so the administrator threw them into prison!

Not only did the administrator bring the children to jail, putting them in the company of dangerous criminals, but he also threatened to keep them there and fry them in oil. If all this would have caused fright and anxiety to an adult, it was much worse for children between seven and ten years old, who did not understand the game in which they were victims. Despite all this, the threat of keeping them in prison was to no avail, although it must have terrified them.

Sr. Lúcia described the events this way, "After they had separated us, we were reunited in another room in the prison. They had told us that soon they would come take us to fry us alive. Jacinta then went over next to a window that overlooked the cattle market. I assumed at first that she was doing this to distract herself with the view; but before long I realized that she was crying. I went to get her to bring her next to me and asked why she was crying: 'Because,' she replied, 'we are going to die without going back to see our parents, not even our mothers!'" 20 Besides the sufferings of being thrown among hostile strangers and threatened with a painful death – a threat the little shepherds took seriously – they also suffered from being separated from their families. In fact, Lúcia speaks of this in her Memoirs: "When we were imprisoned, what cost Jacinta the most was to feel abandoned by her parents. With tears running down her cheeks, she said: 'Neither your parents nor mine came to see us. We don't matter to them.' 'Don't cry,' Francisco told her. 'Let's offer this to Jesus, for sinners.'"

Francisco kept up his spirits and tried to encourage the homesick Jacinta. But then they had to face the threat of being thrown into boiling oil. A man came in and told them to leave the room and sit on a bench outside it. Meanwhile, he gave orders to another man to prepare a cauldron. Soon after, they were told in all seriousness that the cauldron of boiling oil was ready, and that each one of them would be thrown into it if they did not reveal the secret. Then, a sullen guard appeared. His name is said to have been Cândido Alho, although this is uncertain. He told them very seriously that the cauldron was ready and called Jacinta, saying that she would be the first to be burned. She went out quickly, without saying goodbye to Francisco and Lúcia, convinced that the whole thing was in earnest.

Newly ordained Fr. Jeff Stephens will be celebrating daily Mass at St. Patrick on June 21 and 22 and at Transfiguration, West Milton on June 20 and 23.

FIXING THE ROOF (HOPEFULLY)

As most of you know, the church has had a leaky roof for quite some time. Over the past couple of years, we have been working on a plan to fix the roof, both exterior and interior damage. What will be done is replacing the tile roof and to repair the damaged areas of the church ceiling. This project is just under one million dollars. We presently have just over half of the money needed for the project. I am asking for donations for this project. You can send the donations directly to the Parish Office or place them in the collection basket (in an enveloped marked: roof project). Thank you for your support.

Join the Parish Staff in celebrating Pat Smith and her many years of Ministry at St. Patrick as she steps back from her role in Adult Faith Formation. We will be having coffee and donuts on Sunday, June 25th after the 9:30 a.m. Mass to wish her well and thank her for all she's done to promote the Catholic faith.

APPRENTICE

Reflection on Matthew 9:36–10:8

A friend's son, who had a passion for building things as a child, followed that passion as a young adult into an apprenticeship to a master carpenter that lasted for several years. His Dad and I watched with fascination and pride as this young man learned the trade and became himself a master craftsman. Such a process takes time, patience, willingness to learn, openness to be stretched.

So it is with discipleship in Jesus. As Jesus sends out His twelve disciples in today's Gospel, they are very much still in apprenticeship. Even though there is an urgency to the mission, as expressed by Jesus' pity at the sight of the crowds in such need of shepherding, the disciples are instructed to go only "to the lost sheep of the house of Israel," and not yet to the Gentiles. Our on-the-job-training, even in ministry, in discipleship, usually begins in the shallow end of the pool, where we test our skills, learn how to apply them, take constructive criticism and adjust appropriately as we go.

SAINT ALOYSIUS GONZAGA

Feast Day: June 21

Patron Saint of: Catholic Youth, Teenagers, Seminarians

At age 7, Aloysius experienced a profound spiritual quickening. His prayers included the Office of Mary, the psalms, and other devotions. At age 9, he came from his hometown of Castiglione to Florence to be educated; by age 11, he was teaching catechism to poor children, fasting three days a week, and practicing great austerities. When he was 13 years old, he traveled with his parents and the Empress of Austria to Spain, and acted as a page in the court of Philip II. The more Aloysius saw of court life, the more disillusioned he became, seeking relief in learning about the lives of saints.

A book about the experience of Jesuit missionaries in India suggested to him the idea of entering the Society of Jesus, and in Spain his decision became final. Now began a four-year contest with his father. Eminent churchmen and laypeople were pressed into service to persuade Aloysius to remain in his "normal" vocation. Finally he prevailed, was allowed to renounce his right to succession, and was received into the Jesuit novitiate.

Like other seminarians, Aloysius was faced with a new kind of penance—that of accepting different ideas about the exact nature of penance. He was obliged to eat more, and to take recreation with the other students. He spent four years in the study of philosophy and had Saint Robert Bellarmine as his spiritual adviser.

In 1591, a plague struck Rome. The Jesuits opened a hospital of their own. Because he nursed patients, washing them and making their beds, Aloysius caught the disease. A fever persisted after his recovery and he was so weak he could scarcely rise from bed. Yet he maintained his great discipline of prayer, knowing that he would die three months later within the octave of Corpus Christi, at the age of 23.

WHAT WE BELIEVE – THE BEAUTY OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH

Our next Bible Study will take place in September. Sunday, September 10, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. or Wednesday, September 13, 2023 at 9:00 a.m. Study is 10 weeks long and all sessions meet in the church undercroft. Discover the Amazing Riches of the Catholic Faith.

What is the Catholic Church all about? What does it mean to be Catholic? What do Catholics actually believe?

The Catholic Church is extraordinary. Founded by Christ Himself, the Catholic Church is where we encounter God in His Word, His sacraments, and His saints. The Church faithfully proclaims the fullness of faith, leaving no truth out. It proclaims the fullness of life, leaving no person out. It calls all to repent and to believe in God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the source of all life and salvation. Maybe you've been Catholic your entire life. Maybe you're just beginning to explore the Catholic Faith. Wherever you may be in your journey, you will be profoundly moved by the beauty and richness of the Catholic Church.

If interested, go to Ascensionpress.com to order your study set for “What We Believe.” Total with shipping is $35.70. Please email Pat Smith once you are registered so I know who has registered. Order early, in case they sell out.
