FR. ERIC'S RAMBLINGS

Reflections on Fatima 24 of 27

September 13: Our Lady's words

The visit of our Blessed Mother was short and sweet, but packed. Mary opened the meeting with the children with a word of tenderness and motherly solicitude, as Lúcia reports: "Continue to pray the Rosary to obtain the end of the war. In October, Our Lord will come, as well as Our Lady of Sorrows and Mount Carmel, and Saint Joseph with the Child Jesus to bless the world. God is pleased with your sacrifices, but He doesn't want you to sleep with the rope; wear it only during the day." This refers to a practice the children had begun, wearing a rough cord of rope as a form of penance. They used to wear it day and night. Lúcia explains: "Due to either the thickness or roughness of the rope, or because sometimes we tightened it too much, this instrument sometimes made us suffer horribly. Jacinta would shed tears at times because of the great discomfort it caused her; and sometimes when I would tell her to take it off, she would answer: 'No! I want to offer this sacrifice to Our Lord, in reparation and for the conversion of sinners.'" Such penances, of course, should be submitted to the judgment of a confessor or spiritual director in order to avoid imprudent excesses. In this case, there was a health risk: the children were not getting enough sleep and their health suffered. Perhaps the children did not know about these precautions; on the other hand, it would have been difficult for them to find a priest who could advise them on these matters. So in this case, Our Lady, like the best of mothers, decided to intervene, directing them spiritually. There is one more detail worth noting – the children's response: "Needless to say, we promptly obeyed her orders."

Lúcia hastened to present a list of the requests recommended to her: "I was told to ask you for many things: the cure of some sick people, of a deaf mute. 'Yes, some I will cure, but not others. In October, I will perform a miracle so that everyone will believe.' Then, starting to rise, she disappeared as usual.

The interview with heaven was short. Then, she went away toward the east, and I told the people to turn in that direction if they wanted to see her." As the children left, the crowd followed them. Olímpia feared that she might be recognized. Seeing that the children were safe, she told Maria Rosa that they should leave quickly. They walked toward Aljustrel and returned to their own homes.

FIXING THE ROOF (HOPEFULLY)

As most of you know, the church has had a leaky roof for quite some time. Over the past couple of years, we have been working on a plan to fix the roof, both exterior and interior damage. What will be done is replacing the tile roof and repairing the damaged areas of the church ceiling. This project is just under one million dollars. We presently have just over half of the money needed for the project. I am asking for donations for this project. You can send the donations directly to the Parish Office or place them in the collection basket (in an envelope marked: roof project). Thank you for your support.

The Archdiocese of Cincinnati, in keeping with its policies, has completed the five-year revision of the Decree on Child Protection. We anticipate the revised Decree will be available for download and acknowledgment on the SafeParish website on or about July 1, 2023. Each user with a SafeParish account will need to download, acknowledge to have read, and agree to abide by the requirements of the revised Decree. If this is not completed within 30 days of the promulgation of the Decree by the Archbishop, the user's SafeParish account will show as pending until the user completes the acknowledgement. Users with pending SafeParish accounts are not permitted to work or volunteer with youth until they have met all the child protection requirements and their SafeParish account is approved. Please contact your parish or school safe environment coordinator with any questions.

THE WORD

Reflection on Matthew 13:1-23

I don't remember where I first heard of this image, but it was most likely in a Scripture study class in the seminary. We were trying hard to offer interpretations of a section of St. Paul's letter to the Romans, when our professor said, "Forget what the words on the page say, what is The Word of God burning away? What do you see when the curtain is lifted?"

The words of Scripture are like a curtain in a theater; when you first sit down, the curtain is the focus. But it opens to reveal the action on the stage, and you no longer focus on the curtain. We struggle with the words of Scripture in order to discover The Word, which is always living, active, and inviting us to transformation.

So the Word comes down from heaven, and does not return until accomplishing the work for which it was sent. God indiscriminately and with great generosity continually sows the seeds of The Word in the soil of our lives, where rocks and thorns may at times deter its growth, or even choke it off. But the seeds are not sown just once, but over and over again, waiting for us to be fertile soil that will produce a grand harvest.

SAINT LAWRENCE OF BRINDISI

Feast Day: July 21

Patron Saint of: Brindisi, Naples

Lawrence was born on July 22, 1559, and died exactly 60 years later on his birthday in 1619. After the early death of his parents, he was educated by his uncle at the College of St. Mark in Venice. When he was just 16, he entered the Capuchin Franciscan Order in Venice and received the name of Lawrence. He completed his studies of philosophy and theology at the University of Padua and was ordained a priest at 23. With his facility for languages, Lawrence was able to study the Bible in its original texts. At the request of Pope Clement VIII, he spent much time preaching to the Jews in Italy. So excellent was his knowledge of Hebrew, the rabbis felt sure he was a Jew who had become a Christian.

Lawrence's sensitivity to the needs of people – a character trait perhaps unexpected in such a talented scholar – began to surface. He was elected major superior of the Capuchin Franciscan province of Tuscany at the age of 31. He had the combination of brilliance, human compassion, and administrative skill needed to carry out his duties. In rapid succession he was promoted by his fellow Capuchins and was elected minister general of the Capuchins in 1602. In this position he was responsible for great growth and geographical expansion of the Order.

Lawrence was appointed papal emissary and peacemaker, a job which took him to a number of foreign countries. An effort to achieve peace in his native kingdom of Naples took him on a journey to Lisbon to visit the king of Spain. Serious illness in Lisbon took his life in 1619.

In 1956, the Capuchins completed a 15-volume edition of Lawrence's writings. Eleven of these 15 contain his sermons, each of which relies chiefly on scriptural quotations to illustrate his teaching.

Meet the Staff Fr. Isaiah Callan

My name is Fr. Isaiah "Callan," and my assignment as Our Lady of Fatima's parochial vicar begins July 1, 2023. You'll find me celebrating many daily Masses at St. Patrick in addition to weekend Masses at the various churches. I'll be living in St. Mary's rectory with Fr. Eric.

I was born in Boston and grew up in Waterbury Center, Vermont with my mom, dad and 10 siblings. My sister, Grace, and I attended Franciscan University of Steubenville. (We are triplets.) She moved to Cincinnati ahead of me, and, after I arrived, she brought me to visit the seminary. I wasn't sure with what intentionality she had it in her mind to introduce me to it, but after that the rest was history. In high school I couldn't yet pursue something like that, and put it off to the side. I had encouragement to move faster because I wanted to do something worth pursuing while in my 20s, now 30. This was a gift that I had not yet opened.

When I was first in the seminary, we were told stories that not too long ago, there were only 30 men total, and the trend was that priests would potentially (and need to) be pastor within two to three years following Ordination. And now, it's already a different culture with 80-85 seminarians enrolled. With this increase, I can now change my mentality, relish my time and learn from other pastors before being assigned in that capacity. I believe that in being a parochial vicar I will discover what it means to be a priest through the work itself; to try new things and discover how the call has deepened. Over time, I'll see how that will change me into the priest that Jesus wants me to become. Whereas the buck stops with Fr. Eric, each priest might have his own category of oversight or charism – and I'll likely be involved with young adult and youth groups and some nursing home engagement. As vicar, I'll also be involved in walking with couples through marriage prep, marriage, anointing of the sick, confessions...

The Church is a body of people, it's a person infinitely complex and diverse, but a unified being. This example sets a model for what it means to be a unified Church, but still yet to become fully integrated. Beacons of Light might be difficult because of melding several different church cultures; at times, it might not be easy, but it's not impossible. The challenge here is to embrace each one's uniqueness without division – coming to discover the joy of what it means to be one parish with the experiences of so many different people. And I look forward to being a part of it.

St. Josemaria Escriva is someone I've looked up to. I like how very practical the short, spiritual books he wrote are: "The Way," "Furrow," and "The Forge." When looking for ideas on how to implicate the principles of the faith, they give you something to think about and act upon. Aside from reading and an occasional podcast, I like to get outside and take walks to learn about people. I'd like to think I'm good with youth, I enjoy learning about people's interesting experiences. I think I am a good listener. I'm ready to meet our people and get to know them.
