FR. ERIC'S RAMBLINGS

Reflections on Fatima 26 of 27

The crowd was estimated as being from 50,000 to 70,000 people. Considering the limited means of transport available at the time and the state of the terrain at the Cova da Iria, aggravated by the continual rain, that is a significant number.

The children arrived at the Cova da Iria. The little that remained of the holm oak was decorated with roses and silk ribbons. As soon as the children reached it, Lúcia, moved by an interior impulse, asked the people to close their umbrellas and pray the Rosary. The request seemed absurd since the rain was still drenching people to the skin. But they obeyed her at once.

As soon as they started the Rosary, Our Lady began to speak. Soon after, we saw the flash of light and then Our Lady appeared over the holm oak. "What do you want of me?" "I want to tell you that a chapel is to be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Always continue praying the Rosary every day. The war is going to end and the soldiers will soon return to their homes."

Lúcia told our Blessed Mother of the many petitions that people had entrusted to her. With the simplicity of a child of the hill country, accustomed to coming straight to the point, she added: "I have many things to ask you: to cure sick people, to convert some sinners, and other things." "Some yes; others no. They must amend their lives and ask pardon for their sins. Do not offend the Lord our God anymore, because he is already so much offended." "Then, opening her hands, she made them reflect on the sun, and as she ascended, the reflection of her own light continued to be projected on the sun itself.

Here, Your excellency, is the reason why I cried out to the people to look at the sun. My aim was not to call their attention to the sun, because I was not even aware of their presence. I was moved to do so under the guidance of an interior impulse.

After Our Lady had disappeared into the immense distance of the firmament, we beheld St. Joseph with the Child Jesus and Our Lady robed in white with a blue mantle, beside the sun. St. Joseph and the Child Jesus appeared to bless the world, for they traced the Sign of the Cross with their hands. When, a little later, this apparition disappeared, I saw Our Lord and Our Lady; it seemed to me that it was Our Lady of Sorrow. Our Lord appeared to bless the world in the same manner as St. Joseph had done. This apparition also vanished, and I saw Our Lady once more, this time resembling Our Lady of Carmel."

FIXING THE ROOF (HOPEFULLY)

As most of you know, the church has had a leaky roof for quite some time. Over the past couple of years, we have been working on a plan to fix the roof, both exterior and interior damage. What will be done is replacing the tile roof and to repair the damaged areas of the church ceiling. This project is just under one million dollars. We presently have just over half of the money needed for the project. I am asking for donations for this project. You can send the donations directly to the Parish Office or place them in the collection basket (in an envelope marked: roof project). Thank you for your support.

ENCOUNTERING GOD

Reflection on Matthew 13:44-52

"The kingdom of heaven is like... a treasure buried in a field... a merchant searching for fine pearls... a net thrown into the sea..." With these compelling metaphors Jesus teaches us about the Kingdom – the presence and power of God's transforming love in human life.

How does God's love break into human life? How does God choose to come to us, to reveal Himself, to gift us with the Kingdom? The answer is: However God wants to! This is what strikes me about these parables. A search for a pearl, a hidden treasure in a field, a fishing net in the sea – all of these seem rather unlikely places to find God. But I think that is the point. Since the incarnation, God is likely to be found in all the most unlikely, surprising places. In fact, there is really no place in our human experience where, when we gaze closely, we will not find God present.

Thankfully, our Church gives us the privileged places and moments where we encounter God, especially in His Word (Scripture) and in the Sacraments. And gratefully, God surprises us with popping up in other places and moments – in creation, in smiles, in a book read, in a friendship, in everyday events, and in pearls, treasures, and nets.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

Feast Day: August 1

Patron Saint of: Theologians, Vocations

At the University of Naples, Alphonsus received a doctorate in both canon and civil law by acclamation, at the age of 16, but he soon gave up the practice of law for apostolic activity. He was ordained a priest, and concentrated his pastoral efforts on popular parish missions, hearing Confessions, and forming Christian groups.

He founded the Redemptorist congregation in 1732. It was an association of priests and brothers living a common life, dedicated to the imitation of Christ, and working mainly in popular missions for peasants in rural areas. Alphonsus' great pastoral reforms were in the pulpit and confessional—replacing the pompous oratory of the time with simplicity, and the rigorism of Jansenism with kindness.

His greatest sorrow came toward the end of his life. The Redemptorists, precariously continuing after the suppression of the Jesuits in 1773, had difficulty in getting their Rule approved by the Kingdom of Naples. Alphonsus acceded to the condition that they possess no property in common, but with the connivance of a high Redemptorist official, a royal official changed the Rule substantially. Alphonsus, old, crippled and with very bad sight, signed the document, unaware that he had been betrayed. The Redemptorists in the Papal States then put themselves under the pope, who withdrew those in Naples from the jurisdiction of Alphonsus. It was only after his death that the branches were united.

Alphonsus is best known for his moral theology, but he also wrote well in the field of spiritual and dogmatic theology. His Glories of Mary is one of the great works on that subject, and his book Visits to the Blessed Sacrament went through 40 editions in his lifetime, greatly influencing the practice of this devotion in the Church.

Meet the Staff Susan Anderson

I have just begun my role as Director of Religious Education (DRE) for Our Lady of Fatima. When working with students, they usually call me "Miss Susan" or "Mrs. Anderson." I now have offices in Troy and Piqua and can meet at Transfiguration when needed, too. Since 2018, I had been serving as DRE for St. Patrick.

My role includes guiding programs that will teach and share the faith within our parish community. Some examples are Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA, formerly RCIA) and Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) classes. People I will get to serve will primarily include adults, families and preschool through elementary students. I'm also the Safety Environment Coordinator. This involves programs that train and keep our volunteers and staff in compliance with keeping our youth safe. In my role, I'll work in conjunction with the Director of Youth Ministry, an OCIA coordinator and volunteer teachers, amongst others, and will collaborate with the two school staffs.

I live in Troy with my husband, Gregg, and dog, Alice. I have one daughter Ellie Miller who lives in Troy with her husband Alex. She works at St. Patrick School in intervention. They have a son, Wil, and a new baby, Max. I love hanging out with my family, family dinners, spending time with friends and visiting the beaches on the Florida gulf. My Bachelor's degree is Child and Family Development and Administration from Bowling Green State University. I have several certifications within the Archdiocese Religious Ed program, and I've now worked 25 years within the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. When I began this work, I was told to trust in the Holy Spirit, and so I have. The Holy Spirit drew me to this work, and I've been blessed beyond measure to serve. My favorite saint is Our Mother Mary! I can always talk to her.

It's exciting to come together to meet new people and check out things going on at each of the churches within Our Lady of Fatima. There are new friends to celebrate Mass and pray with and to build a community with.
