FR. ERIC'S RAMBLINGS

We will continue the Reflections on Fatima soon.

ST. PATRICK ROOF REPAIR

As you'll notice, work has begun to repair the church roof and replace the tiles. This will also include interior ceiling repairs. Thank you for your patience the next few months while this much-needed construction continues. And thank you for your financial assistance with this project to maintain our beautiful church! If you would like to support the project, please send your donation to the church office or place it in the collection basket in an envelope marked "roof project." Further updates will be noted in the coming weeks.

OUR LADY OF FATIMA BULLETIN – UNDER CONSTRUCTION!

As the churches of Our Lady of Fatima continue toward unifying as one parish, you'll begin to notice more efforts to provide consistent communication across the churches. And so, in the coming weeks, Our Lady of Fatima's new, combined bulletin will be available after Masses! This is a necessity, as it will not only be a reliable source of information for our congregation and visitors, but will also reduce the amount of duplicated work for our staff members, provide one trusted bulletin publishing vendor and one method of bulletin material submission. While the staff and volunteers work behind the scenes to make this resource available, WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE as the bulletin improves along the way.

Please stay tuned for the new method of bulletin material submission/requests. In the meantime, you may temporarily send information via your church's previous contact method. Advertisers, your partnership has been, and will continue to be, tremendously appreciated – thank you!

NEWLY BAPTIZED

Maxwell Jude Miller, son of Alex and Ellie (Waldsmith) Miller and Ruth Helen Koester, daughter of Derek and Bethany (Kramer) Koester. We welcome you to St. Patrick Faith Community.

BAPTISM PREPARATION CLASS FOR PARENTS

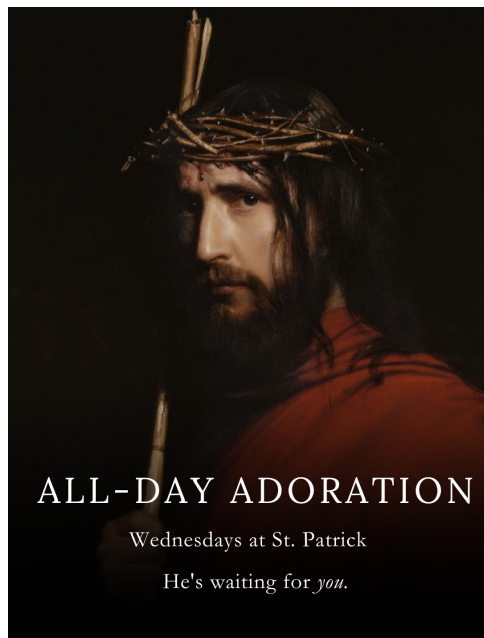

Families preparing to have their child baptized must be registered members of our parish family. First-time parents must plan to attend a preparation class. To register for this free class, please call the St. Patrick Parish Office at 335-2833. Babysitting is available upon request.

Next class is Monday, September 11, beginning at 7:00 p.m. in Room #3 in the St. Patrick Parish Center (located behind the school – 444 E. Water Street).

WEEKLY RAFFLE WINNER:
August 21– Colleen Pearson

PRAYER CHAIN

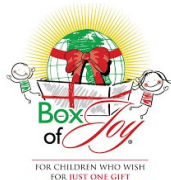

While Mary Grilliot recuperates, please contact Sue Hastings at 937-339-2945 or shastings@woh.rr.com.

Adoration will begin following morning Mass and conclude with Benediction at 7:00 p.m. We invite parishioners to sign up for a weekly, hour-long time slot for six months. We need two Adorers each hour so our Lord is never left alone. A sign-up sheet is available in the Narthex (Church entryway).

CALLING ALL CRAFTERS

The Sacred Heart Ladies Club invites you to sell your unique handcrafted items at our Snowflake Craft Bazaar on Friday, November 3 and Saturday, November 4. The Bazaar will be held in the Father Paul Vieson Parish Center at Sacred Heart in New Carlisle. For more information or an application, contact snowflake@sacredheartnc.net.

BOX OF JOY MINISTRY COMING SOON!

Box of Joy is sponsored through Cross Catholic Outreach to bless extremely poor children in other countries at Christmastime. Parishioners fill a shoebox-sized package for a boy or girl of a certain age and pay for the shipping. Suggested items to pack are toys, apparel and school supplies. Since most of the recipient children live in warm climates, now is the time to buy flip flops, sunglasses, tank tops and school supplies, as they are on sale right now. Save these items until you see the official boxes and instructions appear at church in early September. Questions? Contact Shelly at 937-698-4520.

MEN'S MENTORSHIP VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Elizabeth's New Life Center has nine Women's Centers throughout Southwest Ohio who offer free services to those facing an unexpected pregnancy, this includes the father of the baby. Many of our male clients have never had a father figure in their life. The male mentor/consultant can play a key role in shaping the client's perception of fatherhood and become an encouraging influence as the client chooses to become a father and beyond. Training is provided for this position and there is a minimum commitment of two hours per week. For more information or questions, please contact Kelley Parker at 937-226-7414, ext. 304 or visit enlc.life, click on Get Involved and then Volunteer Registration.

SACRIFICIAL LOVE

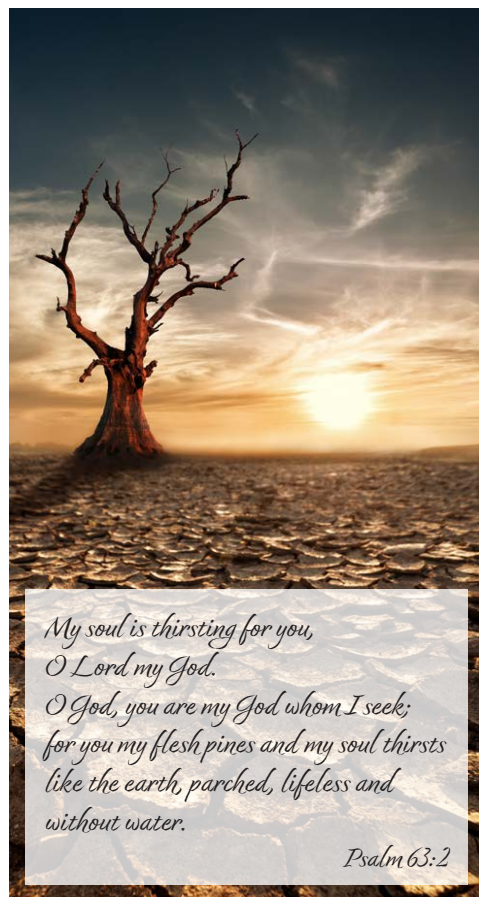

Reflection on Matthew 16:21-27

Last week, Jesus affirmed Peter's answer and insight as correct. Today, Peter gets it wrong, and Jesus must rebuke him, and then instruct His disciples on what it means to be the Christ.

The suffering, death, and Resurrection of Jesus anchors everything about what it means to be a follower of Jesus, a missionary disciple, a Christian. How often do we want to jump to the glory of the Resurrection, to a triumphalism, without passing through the suffering and death. The self-denial that Jesus speaks of – taking up our cross and following in His footsteps – is a necessary path and mystery for us to walk. It is not an end in itself, but a pathway – a journey of sacrificial love – that leads to the new life of the resurrection.

The truth is that this Paschal Mystery is the life in Christ we live daily, dying and rising over and over again, so that every moment, every relationship, every event and opportunity that comes our way, is infused with self-sacrificing love, in order to glorify God.

~ Fr. Jay

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT

Feast Day: September 3

Patron Saint of: Musicians and Teachers

Gregory was the prefect of Rome before he was 30. After five years in office he resigned, founded six monasteries on his Sicilian estate, and became a Benedictine monk in his own home at Rome.

Ordained a priest, Gregory became one of the pope's seven deacons, and also served six years in the East as papal representative in Constantinople. He was recalled to become abbot, but at the age of 50 was elected pope by the clergy and people of Rome.

Gregory was direct and firm. He removed unworthy priests from office, forbade taking money for many services, emptied the papal treasury to ransom prisoners of the Lombards and to care for persecuted Jews and the victims of plague and famine. He was very concerned about the conversion of England, sending 40 monks from his own monastery. He is known for his reform of the liturgy, and for strengthening respect for doctrine. Whether he was largely responsible for the revision of "Gregorian" chant is disputed.

His book, Pastoral Care, on the duties and qualities of a bishop, was read for centuries after his death. He described bishops mainly as physicians whose main duties were preaching and the enforcement of discipline. In his own down-to-earth preaching, Gregory was skilled at applying the daily Gospel to the needs of his listeners. Called "the Great," Gregory has been given a place with Augustine, Ambrose, and Jerome, as one of the four key doctors of the Western Church.

An Anglican historian has written: "It is impossible to conceive what would have been the confusion, the lawlessness, the chaotic state of the Middle Ages without the medieval papacy; and of the medieval papacy, the real father is Gregory the Great."

Please join us for this encouraging seminar. Everyone who attends receives a booklet with over 30 short readings on how to live with grief and eventually rebuild your life.

We will also be offering Surviving the Holidays, Saturday, November 18 at 10:00 a.m. for those facing the holidays after a loved one's death. It is a helpful, encouraging seminar that features video interviews with counselors, grief experts and other people who have experienced the holidays after their loved one's death and who offer practical suggestions and reassurance. This is also an updated version this year. All will be held at St. Patrick Church Parish Center, upstairs Room 3. Questions? SCHOOL

Week 1 down!! The Open House was great! We had a cookout, Kona Ice, and some games set up. We all celebrated the beginning of our 135th year! That's a huge accomplishment.

It was hot in the building, so we had to take early dismissals the first week.

Preschool and PK start the week of the 28th. Our enrollment this year is at 180 for K-8 and 48 for preschool and PK. We have a vibrant community and it's a blessing to continue to grow. Community is important. I have a quote in the staff break room that I found several years ago. It's a powerful statement about community.

It's taken from a book called "Dreams for Your Grandchild" by Allen Hunt.

"We need a community to help us reach our goal. Faith is not an individual journey; it's a team sport. We need each other. We are on this journey together."

We are journeying to heaven together. It's important as a Catholic community that we work to make sure we walk with others to help them to heaven. This is the ultimate destination of our journey.

With that being said, thank you for your continued support of your school at St. Patrick.

Have a blessed week!

Pray, hope and don't worry! – St. Pio
