GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FR. ERIC'S RAMBLINGS – VENERABLE LUCIA: THE LONELY MARIAN APOSTLE – PT. 3

"My two eldest sisters were already grown up. My mother, knowing that I repeated everything I heard like a parrot, wanted them to take me with them everywhere they went. They were, as we say in our locality, the leading lights among the young people. There was not a festival or a dance that they did not attend. At Carnival time, on St. John's Day, and at Christmas, there was certain to be a dance. Besides this, there was the vintage. Then there was the olive picking, with a dance almost every day. When the big parish festivals came round, such as the feasts of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Our Lady of the Rosary, St. Anthony, and so on, we always raffled cakes; after that came a dance, without fail. We were invited to almost all the weddings for miles around, for if they did not invite my mother to be matron of honour, they were sure to need her for the cooking. At these weddings, the dance went on from after the banquet until well into the next morning. Since my sisters had to have me always with them, they took as much trouble in dressing me up as they were wont to do for themselves. As one of them was a dressmaker, I was always decked out in a regional costume more elegant than that of any girl around... You would have thought that they were dressing a doll rather than a small child.

At the dances, they deposited me on top of a wooden chest or some other tall piece of furniture to save me from being trampled underfoot. Once on my perch, I had to sing a number of songs to the music of a guitar or the concertina. My sisters had already taught me to sing as well as to dance a few waltzes when there was a partner missing. The latter I did with great agility, thus attracting the attention and applause of everyone present. Some of them even rewarded me with gifts in the hope of pleasing my sisters."

As was the custom in Portugal at the time, the faith formation was a priority. Sr. Lucia testified, "The first thing I learned was the Hail Mary, because my mother used to hold me in her arms while she taught it to my sister Carolina." Maria Rosa taught the children charity, helping the sick and the needy. She recalled: "Sometimes my mother would prepare a small basket...with gifts that she sent me to bring to various persons whom she knew didn't have much... sometimes it was a basket of chestnuts, and when she sent me to bring them to Ti Coxa's house or to the old lady... she would send me there with a bundle of dry firewood... because theirs was wet since they couldn't guard it from the rain...so they could light the fire and roast the chestnuts. So I would leave, carrying the chestnuts on my arm and the bundle of firewood on my head."

ST. BONIFACE & ST. MARY

ST. CLARE EUCHARISTIC ADORATION CHAPEL

Praise God! Under the direction of Fr. Angelo Caserta, St. Clare Chapel opened in 1990 as a Perpetual Adoration Chapel in the back of St. Boniface Church. It's such a blessing that new guardians continue to join the ministry, along with the several loyal, long-time guardians who have amazingly chosen to hold a Holy Hour in the chapel since its inception – wow! We continue to invite parishioners inside and outside of Piqua, newly retired, and young adults or families to consider a devotion to Our Eucharistic Lord in the chapel. Beginning as a substitute is a great way to start or simply “trial” an hour for a period of time. All are welcome to visit! Refreshed hours requiring guardian assistance include:

- † Sunday, 12:00 midnight, 3:00 a.m.
- † Monday, 6:00 a.m.
- † Tuesday, 2:00 a.m. (snowbird sub)
- † Thursday, 2:00 a.m.
- † Friday, 7:00 p.m. (every other week)
- † Friday, 9:00 p.m.
- † Saturday, 11:00 a.m. (weeks 1, 2), 1:00 p.m., 8:00 p.m. (every other week)

To inquire, please contact Mike Epperly at 937-622-0112 or Mary Jane Karn at 937-778-0496.
