GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FR. ERIC'S RAMBLINGS – STATIONS OF THE CROSS

11TH STATION: JESUS IS NAILED TO THE CROSS

In the prayer that Jesus said on the Cross, the Psalm that begins with "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me," there were also these words: "They have pierced my hands and my feet/I can count all my bones." The prayer continued, "I shall announce your Name to my brethren/I shall praise you in the assembly." The Cross was, therefore, the pulpit that the Father assigned to you, O Jesus, to reveal to us His name, and to praise it together with us, your poor crucifiers. Forgive me, if now I think about the ministry with which you have entrusted me and the proclamation you ask me every day to repeat "to my brethren." My obedience is certainly owed, but I have thought too little about your absolute obedience, your having been inevitably "nailed" to the Cross. An old medieval text offered the monks "Your" advice: "Just as someone crucified cannot move his limbs as He wishes, or turn around, but must stay there where they nailed Him, you must adhere to Your cross and renounce yourself, without being able to turn your will to your fantasies or the pleasure of the moment, but apply it wholly where my will has nailed you." Also grant to us, Your ministers, to remain joyfully crucified – in poor and naked obedience – to the ministry with which You have entrusted us. In this way, the Blessed Padre Pio of Pietrelcina remained daily nailed to your Cross for more than 50 years, bearing Your same wounds in his body. The stigmata show the world the miracle of the Christian priesthood, making visible the "dear price" of blood hidden in every Eucharistic sacrifice, in every sacramental absolution, in every intercession of grace and in every conflict with the Malign; the price also hidden in the humble and constant subjection to Your Church.

12TH STATION: JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

After forgiving the obtuse evil of men, after hearing from a repentant thief the first sweet prayer of "Jesus, remember me!" After shouting, "I am thirsty" – almost a last testament for us, Jesus dies. Lord, the medieval mystics said that one should meditate on Your death on the Cross "insatiably," never tiring of entering into the depths of Your "too great love." The disciple John, the only one of the Twelve to see You die, watched You at the moment of Your death and preserved a precious testimony for us: "Jesus, after bowing His head, gave up His spirit." For every dying person the last breath comes out of his lips, and then his head bows down on his breast. You, instead, first bowed Your head and then "gave up the spirit." Thus, your last breath descended on the small Church already gathered at the foot of the Cross. Your last dying breath was like the breath of the Creator upon the first man; it was like the Spirit sent to the Virgin at the time of your Incarnation, and already announced that breath of new life that You would bestow on the disciples on Easter evening and on Pentecost. I again see Your martyr St. Maximilian Kolbe stopping exhausted before the pile of bodies he was forced to drag on a cart to the cremation ovens of Auschwitz. Before going away, he murmurs under his breath: "Et Verbum caro factum est...Holy Mary, pray for us." Even at the execution place in a concentration camp, that last sigh of a martyr – a breath of faith in You and of charity for the other victims – was the anticipation of "victory through faith and love."

LENTEN RAFFLE

We are familiar with "giving up" something during Lent. It is important to do something positive as well. This is your chance to do something that can really benefit the St. Mary Help-A-Student Fund for St. Mary Church. The Lenten Raffle tickets have been mailed to all parishioners of St. Mary. Additional tickets for $5.00 each can be obtained from the parish office or church entrances. The top prize is $500.00 and the drawing will be held on the last Fish Fry, April 11 in the North St. Campus cafeteria at Piqua Catholic. Thank you for your support!!
