GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FR. ERIC BOWMAN'S RAMBLINGS – TWO HEARTS & DEVOTION

Friday, June 27 is the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, followed the next day by the Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The commemoration of these two hearts occurs every year shortly after Pentecost. Church of the Transfiguration has a tradition of celebrating the Two Hearts with Mass on Friday night for the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, followed by the gift of all-night Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament and concluding with Mass on Saturday morning for the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Let's briefly explore the history of devotion to the Two Hearts.

The saint most commonly associated with the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is Margaret Mary Alacoque, a 17th century nun and mystic. St. Margaret Mary had many visions of Jesus, in which He asked her to spread devotion to His Sacred Heart. Pope Clement XIII officially recognized and approved the devotion in 1765. In 1856, Pope Pius IX extended the feast to the Universal Church, and on June 11, 1899, Pope Leo XIII consecrated all mankind to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

To trace the history of devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we must return to our friend, St. John Eudes. Private devotion to Mary's heart can be found in writings dating to the late 13th century, but it was St. John in the 17th century who labored to spread the devotion throughout much of France. He even petitioned (unsuccessfully) for a feast in 1669. After St. John's death, though, the devotion continued to spread, and in 1799, Pope Pius VI gave the first permission for a diocese to institute a feast for the Immaculate Heart. The feast was extended to the Universal Church by Pope Pius XII in 1944, following a call from Our Lady of Fatima. On March 25, 1984, Pope John Paul II consecrated the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

The feasts of these Two Hearts are important for us. They remind us of the love Jesus has for each of us, shown in His death and the piercing of His Sacred Heart, as well as Mary's maternal love for us. Her heart, pierced by a sword as she watched her son die, opens wide for all of her children, those who belong to her Son.

We can also practice the First Friday and First Saturday devotions. Many people practice the First Friday devotion, by which they receive Holy Communion on the first Friday of nine consecutive months, specifically with the intention of honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and in reparation for offenses against the Blessed Sacrament. The First Saturday devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary consists in receiving Holy Communion, praying the Rosary, extra meditation for 15 minutes on one or more of the mysteries of the Rosary, and going to Confession within eight days before or after.

One of the most important ways we can put these devotions into practice in our lives is through consecration, particularly family consecration. This is a way to place our families under special protection and offer special devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary. Below is just one of many prayers of consecration:

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, I consecrate myself and my whole family to You. We consecrate to You our very being and all our life, all that we are, all that we have and all that we love. To You, we give our bodies, our hearts and our souls. To You, we dedicate our home and our country. Mindful of this consecration, we now promise You to live the Christian way by the practice of Christian virtues. O most Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary, accept our humble confidence and this act of consecration by which we entrust ourselves and all our family to You. In You, we put all our hope, and we shall never be confounded.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

An important mailing was sent to registered parishioners last week. In response to the Archdiocese not being able to replace our retiring priest at this time, Our Lady of Fatima's Mass and Confession schedules will need to adjust. This will be in effect beginning Monday, June 30, 2025. Thanks to our current priests, there will still be 11 opportunities for Sunday obligation Masses within Our Lady of Fatima's Family of Parishes, please plan your Mass attendance accordingly.

Multiple configurations were reviewed and considered by clergy, staff, Pastoral Council, the leadership team and our Deanery of the Archdiocese, with multiple factors, requirements and schedules having been in motion. Thank you for your patience and kindness when adjustments occur. We are very grateful for the people who were involved and represented our parishes not only through this process, but also to those who have participated so thoughtfully for these first three years of Beacons of Light.

Question: If I attend a different church within Our Lady of Fatima, how do I make sure my collection envelope is received by my registered church?

Answer: Parishioners may place collection envelopes from any Our Lady of Fatima church into any collection basket. They will be transferred to the church it's intended for you. Parishioners may also tithe via online giving links found on most of our church websites, either for one-time gifts or for auto-payments on a regular basis.

A special celebration of marriage is one that we would like to be extended to the entire Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes community! Several of our churches have made efforts with this in the past. If you would like to be part of making this happen, we will look to set this in motion for 2025-2026. CHRIST IN THE WOMB

By Week 14, Jesus is now more than three-and-half inches long and weighs more than one-and-a-half ounces. Due to Mary's delicate little teenage frame, it has become very evident to her that she is pregnant. Inside, Jesus is developing muscles and beginning to flex his hands, legs, and wrists a lot. Jesus of the womb, Hear our prayers!

MINISTRIES

MUSIC & LITURGY

Did You Know? There's a special moment toward the end of Mass that you just might miss if you're not looking. Designated parishioners come forward to receive a blessing and small container, called a pyx, which contains consecrated Hosts to be distributed to people who cannot attend Mass. These parishioners are Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to the sick and homebound. These volunteers manifest faith and charity on behalf of the entire church community. Stay tuned for more information on how to be involved with this beautiful ministry that connects our parishioners who cannot be with us in person, but who are very much part of the One Body of Christ. Please pray for those who are not able to be with us during Mass.
