Welcome to Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes! (OLF) If you are visiting or new to the area, we are a faith-filled Catholic community that is comprised of five Roman Catholic churches, two Catholic schools and a beautiful spiritual center within the Archdiocese of Cincinnati (NW-6 region). We accompany people in becoming disciples of Christ.

On behalf of pastor Fr. Eric Bowman, our clergy, staff and parishioners, you are invited to grow in your faith and even closer to Jesus along with us. Resources, ways to become involved and times and places of worship can be found in our bulletin and by utilizing the contact list toward the back section. To register for a church, please contact the church office manager. If you are interested in learning more about the faith, please contact a priest, the religious education department or me. Follow "Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes – Ohio" on Facebook to connect even more.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CONTACT YOUR CHURCH OFFICE!

BAPTISM – Congrats, New Parents!

Class is required, by appointment. Prior to Baptizing your child, register for your required Baptism Class: pcartwright@stpattroy.org, 937-335-2833. OLF Baptism Classes are held at St. Patrick Parish Center (white building behind the school), upstairs Room 3.

MATRIMONY

Schedule at least nine months in advance. Preparation program and parish registration is required.

ANOIDING OF THE SICK

Those weakened by age, afflicted by serious illness or preparing for serious surgery should receive this sacrament.

HOMEBOUND

Extraordinary Ministers can be arranged to visit homes and nursing facilities with the Eucharist for those unable to worship on Sundays.

SAFEPARISH

To volunteer with children within Our Lady of Fatima, you must be Archdiocesan compliant and registered with the SafeParish program.

PARISHIONER CONTACT INFO

Be sure to keep your address, phone number and email up-to-date with your registered church so you don't miss important things.

RESOURCES

OUR LADY OF FATIMA PASTORAL COUNCIL

The five-church Pastoral Council invites faithful parishioners to nominate members or to self-nominate. Please contact Robyn Gallegos, president, at rcgallegos@frontier.com | 937-409-7101 to be added to the rolling nomination list for Pastoral Council's consideration and potential appointment as vacancies arise in the future. Pastoral Council typically meets for an hour once per month, approximately nine or ten months per year. The term limit is typically three years with consideration for renewal.

Purpose: Striving to be missionary disciples, Pastoral Council provides a platform to share support, concerns, praises and liaising to pastoral leadership so that the Church can continue to be strengthened. Pastoral Council participates in interactive exchanges, serves as a voice of the people and allows for additional accountability for the parish's strategic plan goals.

CHECK OUT FORMED!

If you are looking for good, wholesome Catholic programs, movies, books and resources for you and your family, be sure to check out FORMED. It is a free gift to Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes. Please take advantage of it! Visit stpattroy.formed.org. Simply enter "St. Patrick, Troy, OH," your name and email. Everyone can use it!

BULLETIN

Find the BULLETIN SUBMISSION link on any of Our Lady of Fatima's church websites! There's an easy-to-use link to submit bulletin content, due two Thursdays prior. This is the only method to submit, and it ensures consistency in the content collected and proper preparation time prior to the printing process. If you have a question, please call 937-698-4520. Scan the QR code to the right.

Except for the advertising pages on the back (that are managed and maintained by Dee Printing), the OLF bulletin is the same at each of five churches. There is an "EXTRA" page of bonus content on the Transfiguration and St. Teresa editions, since there are fewer advertisers in those smaller cities. It's advertisers' choice if they opt to purchase advertising space from multiple cities. Thank you to our community advertisers! We are glad to patronize your businesses.

Troy and Piqua parishioners can peek at the "EXTRA" last page by visiting www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/sunday-bulletins.

HEALING IN HIS HANDS

Mental Wellness for the Faithful

Peace be with you. In Matthew 18, St. Peter believes that seven times of forgiveness would be enough. However, as we know, Jesus responds with "...Not seven times, but seventy seven times," or infinite. However, here's a couple of questions to ponder: How many times do we hold onto grudges, hoping to never be hurt again or waiting for the other person to change their ways? Or, how often do we remind ourselves of our own failings over and over again to push ourselves to be better or to avoid making mistakes again? Yet, doing either of these often only keeps us prisoners, locked away from the freedom that Christ and His love has won for us. Try this: When someone wrongs you, say to yourself, "In the name of Jesus, I forgive (person's name) for (what they did)." Also, try this regarding yourself, too. "In the name of Jesus, I forgive (my own name) for (what I did)." The more we do this, the more we honor Jesus' instruction and avail ourselves to the freedom He yearns for us to experience. Come and see.

CATHOLICISM EXPLAINED

Purgatorian Mass in the Catholic Church

BY: FR. STEVEN SHOUP, VICAR

Purgatorian Masses hold a unique place in the spiritual fabric of the Catholic Church, embodying the Church's unwavering commitment to the doctrine of purgatory and its profound belief in the communion of saints. These special Masses are offered for the souls of the faithful departed who are believed to be in purgatory – a transitional state where souls undergo purification before entering the fullness of God's presence in heaven. Rooted in centuries-old theological principles and liturgical tradition, Purgatorian Masses reflect the Church's understanding of God's mercy, human redemption and the power of prayerful intercession.

The concept of purgatory is one of the distinguishing features of Catholic theology. According to Catholic teaching, purgatory is neither a place of eternal punishment nor a second chance at salvation. Instead, it is viewed as a state of purifying fire where souls are cleansed of the residual effects of sin, enabling them to attain the holiness necessary to enter heaven. The doctrine is derived from Scriptural references, such as 2 Maccabees 12:46, which states that it is a "Holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from their sins," as well as passages from the New Testament that allude to a purifying process.

The tradition of offering Masses for the souls in purgatory dates to the early Christian era. From the very beginning, Christians prayed for the deceased, as evidenced by inscriptions on ancient tombs and catacomb walls. By the Middle Ages, this practice became more formalized, evolving into the establishment of special Masses and devotions for the departed.

For many Catholics, Purgatorian Masses are a source of profound spiritual comfort. They affirm the belief that death does not sever the bonds of love and connection between the living and the departed. Through these Masses, the faithful can participate in the divine work of mercy by aiding souls in purgatory, thus demonstrating the Church's teaching on the communion of saints – that all members of the Church, living and deceased, are united in Christ.

Purgatorian Masses encapsulate the Catholic Church's enduring commitment to the doctrine of purgatory and the transformative power of prayer. They provide a sacred opportunity to intercede for souls, affirming the hope of salvation and the promise of eternal life. In celebrating these Masses, Catholics not only honor their departed loved ones but also participate in the spiritual solidarity that defines the communion of saints. As the Church continues to navigate modern challenges, Purgatorian Masses remain a timeless testament to faith, mercy, and the profound interconnectedness of all believers across the realms of life and death.

Due to the loss of Sunday Masses at Transfiguration and St. Teresa, the following Masses will soon be held for Purgatorian intentions that can be reserved, as Purgatorian Masses, to allow for multiple intentions for the deceased during one Mass time. This will begin as these dates/times clear from previously-held reservations. Up to five names accepted.

"There is no greater force against evil in the world than the love of a man and woman in marriage. After the Holy Eucharist, it has a power beyond anything that we can imagine."
– Cardinal Raymond Burke

A special celebration of marriage is one that would like to be extended to the entire Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes community! Several of the churches have made efforts with this in the past. To make the most of our resources, venues and planning time, and, if volunteers have time to share to make this happen, we will look to set this in motion for 2025-2026. Please contact Melinda at office@tchurch.org or 937-698-4520 if you (and your friend, family member or spouse) would like to assist with this. No event date has been set. You, and a small team can work with staff to make this beautiful celebration possible!

Meet the Seminarian Daniel (Dan) Moran

Daniel Moran attends Mount Saint Mary's Seminary and requested to be part of the 2025 summer work program at St Boniface and St. Mary in Piqua through August. He currently resides at St. Mary Rectory with Frs. Eric and Callan and can be found lending a hand, assisting with Piqua parishes' maintenance projects, supporting ministry efforts or engaging with parishioners in the daily life of the parish. You'll also see him serving at daily and weekend Masses.

Born in Cleveland, Dan is the seventh of nine children. He graduated from Wright State University in 2018. Growing up, he moved to places such as Texas and Washington D.C., and after graduation, worked as a mechanical engineer for nearly seven years in Connecticut and Virginia. In 2024, after much prayer and discernment, he answered God's call to pursue the priesthood. His journey was shaped by a growing awareness that the promises of the world, while appealing, often fall short of the lasting fulfillment found in Christ. He feels called to be a source of joy, healing and hope for others, just as the Church has been for him.

Dan invites you to introduce yourself, share your story and welcome him into the life of the parish. He can be reached at:
dmoran@seminary.athenaeum.edu.

DAN'S FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE:

"...And remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age."
-MATTHEW 28:20

Meet the Seminarian Joseph (Joe) Collins

Joseph Collins began his summer assignment on June 23, 2025, participating in the seminarian summer work program at St Boniface and St. Mary in Piqua through August. Joe recently concluded his first year at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary, and currently lives with Fr. Eric, Fr. Callan and our other seminarians at the St. Mary Rectory. Joe is actively engaged in various aspects of parish life - assisting at summer camps, serving at Masses, lending parishioners a hand and helping Marv Cool and Mark Pitsenbarger.

Born in Cincinnati, Joe is one of five siblings and grew up in the Church, attending Catholic schools throughout his life. Joe experienced a personal conversion at the age of 13 during a retreat at Damascus Mission Campus. There, he encountered Jesus and made a lifelong commitment to follow Him. Though he had served the Church from a young age, it was after college that Joe felt a deeper calling to the priesthood.

As he discerns his vocation, Joe is eager to gain a deeper understanding of parish life - both for laypeople and priests. He values the opportunity to grow in prayer, build spiritual friendships with the priests and fully immerse himself in the daily rhythms of parish life.

You're encouraged to say hello and extend an invitation - he's always glad to connect. He can be reached at: jcollins@seminary.athenaeum.edu.

JOE'S FAVORITE BIBLE VERSE:

"I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship."
