We accompany people in becoming disciples of Christ.

On behalf of pastor Fr. Eric Bowman, our clergy, staff and parishioners, you are invited to grow in your faith and even closer to Jesus alongside of us. Find resources, ways to get involved in parish life and times and places of worship within the bulletin. Follow "Our Lady of Fatima Family of Parishes – Ohio" on Facebook to connect further.

To register for a church, or if you are interested in learning more about the Catholic faith, we are here to support you – contact a church office to be welcomed.

Converted by Love: A Reflection on the Conversion of St. Paul

"It is with trembling that St. Paul recalls his vocation: 'And last of all, as by one born out of due time, he was seen also by me. For I am the least of the apostles, and am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.' Thus writes Saul of Tarsus, whose personality and drive fill history with awe." (St. Josemaria Escriva)

The conversion of St. Paul is one of the more defining moments in the history of the Church, for God called to Himself One who stands as a model for the universal call to conversion. It highlights God's power to change hearts, redefine purpose and reveal truth through encounter with the Risen Christ, moving believers from darkness to light and fulfilling God's redemptive plan. It also offers us great hope for our loved ones and neighbors that have fallen away from the church or are living a life in which they don't "need" God.

Here are a few important themes for us to reflect on. First, is God's Divine intervention and the power of Grace. Saul (Paul) wasn't looking for Christ, he was actually trying to silence the name of Jesus. Yet, even so, God's love was poured into Saul as Jesus interrupted his "life's work" and thus, demonstrating that conversion is God's work, an act of grace.

Second is the radical transformation of Saul. He moved from a zealous persecutor of the Church to God's holy missionary disciple and apostle. We find in his conversion a complete reorientation of his identity, mission and understanding.

Finally, we find in St. Paul's conversion story hope, that no sin is too great to prevent grace. Anyone can experience Christ's transformative power, becoming a new creation. There are countless stories of individuals that have moved from a life of sin, to a life of grace in Christ and His Church. Probably many, if not most of us sitting here today, have had a conversion moment. Let us pray, that through the intercession of St. Paul, many more will move from a life of sin to a life of grace, accepting God's call to conversion.

SCHOOLS

Piqua Catholic will recognize individuals who have made significant contributions to Piqua Catholic School and to Catholic education. Honorees will be celebrated at the Hall of Fame Ceremony in May. The Hall of Fame Committee is accepting nominations now through March 1! Use the forms available at both Piqua Catholic School offices and at the entrances of St. Mary's and St. Boniface churches.

National Catholic Schools Week

Please join us for National Catholic Schools Week, the annual celebration of what makes education at both St. Patrick and Piqua Catholic outstanding. Beginning with liturgies the weekend of January 24 and 25, we have a whole week of activities planned to show what our students are accomplishing and to celebrate the community we have built to educate tomorrow's citizens and church leaders. The theme of our celebration is "United in Faith and Community." The theme encompasses the core products and values that can be found in Catholic schools across the country. Not only are we teaching students to become future servant leaders, faith-filled disciples, and enriched citizens in our communities, but educators are also growing with them. In Catholic schools, we are all learners, servants and leaders. These shared qualities are what make Catholic schools work. They are what make Catholic schools succeed. The theme also focuses on key elements of Catholic education: faith development, academic excellence and dedication to service. These elements set Catholic schools apart from other educational options. They are why families make sacrifices to provide their children with a Catholic education.

Catholic Schools
United in Faith and Community

I hope you will pray for both St. Patrick and Piqua Catholic during National Catholic Schools Week. I am grateful every day for the teachers, staff, board members, parents and volunteers who make our school a success. National Catholic Schools Week is a good time for all of us to thank them for their dedication and service.

Yours in Christ,
Cyndi Cathcart
