DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY IS APRIL 12.

Beautiful Liturgies, Eucharistic Adoration, Confession, Chaplet and Prayers will be part of the celebration of the Divine Mercy at:

Church of the Transfiguration | 12:00-3:15 p.m.

12:10-3:00 p.m. Confession, 3:00 p.m. Divine Mercy Chaplet, 3:15 p.m. Benediction

In a series of revelations to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska in the 1930s, Our Lord called for a special feast day to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. Today, we know that feast as Divine Mercy Sunday, named by Pope St. John Paul II at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000. In all, St. Faustina recorded 14 revelations from Jesus concerning His desire for this feast. The Lord expressed His will with regard to the feast in His very first revelation to her. The most comprehensive revelation can be found in her Diary (699):

"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day, the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day are opened all the divine floodgates through which graces flow. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy."

Indeed Divine Mercy, it is not primarily about St. Faustina, nor is it altogether a new feast. The Second Sunday of Easter was already a solemnity as the Octave Day of Easter. * The title "Divine Mercy Sunday" highlights the meaning of the day.

(Reference: thedivinemercy.org)

*Liturgically, the Easter Octave has always been centered on the theme of Divine Mercy and forgiveness. Divine Mercy Sunday, therefore, points us to the merciful love of God that lies behind the whole Paschal Mystery – the whole mystery of the death, burial and Resurrection of Christ – made present for us in the Eucharist. In this way, it also sums up the whole Easter Octave.

A plenary indulgence can be obtained on the Feast of Divine Mercy.

- As stated in the 2002 decree, this can be done by going to a church on Divine Mercy Sunday "in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin," and participating in the prayers held in honor of Divine Mercy. Those practices could consist of devotions such as the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Eucharistic Adoration and the Sacrament of Confession.
- The faithful could also visit the Blessed Sacrament either exposed or in the tabernacle and recite the Our Father, the Nicene Creed and a devout prayer to Christ. The example of a devout prayer that is given in the decree is "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!"

In order to receive the indulgence, the three usual conditions must also be met:

- Go to Confession. (The Church permits the Sacrament up to 20 days before/after the day.)
- Receive Holy Communion in a state of grace.
- Pray for the intentions of the Holy Father.
- Venerate the image of the Divine Mercy.

FR. ERIC BOWMAN RAMBLINGS

Easter

On behalf of Fr. Steve, Fr. Callan, Fr. Bachman and my staff, We wish you and your family a Happy Easter!

In his inimitable style, Archbishop Fulton Sheen shed light on an essential part of Easter's meaning during his early radio shows and then his television series. During his The Catholic Hour radio show on April 5, 1942, he focused on "The Resurrection."

"Friends," he began, "celebrating Easter in a world that is more like a Good Friday and hearing the chance of peace amidst the explosions of war makes us wonder what lesson this blessed feast could have for these tragic days? The answer is to be found in two distinct scenes in the life of Our Lord," he went on. "The first scene took place in the Garden of Gethsemane. And there emerges this lesson: Evil has its hour, but God has His day. And that evil hour is inseparable from God's day." He continued, "Without the war with evil in its hour, there will never be the day of peace. Unless there is a Good Friday in our lives, there will never be an Easter Sunday. Unless there is the crown of thorns, there will never be the halo of light. Unless there is the scourged body, there will never be the glorified body. And there is the answer to the question of Easter."

"How can we celebrate Easter in a world that is like a Good Friday?" he asked rhetorically. Sharing examples, he pointed out, "Our Blessed Lord never said, 'Blessed are the peaceful.' But He did say, 'Blessed are the peacemakers.' Peace must be made. It must be won in a battle. Good Friday was not the day of appeasement. Therefore, Easter was not a day of false peace."

Continuing, he stressed that, "Easter teaches us that there can be no day of victory unless we pass through the hour of struggle against evil and in union with the Savior." There can be no compromise with evil if our victory in Christ's Resurrection is the goal. Venerable Sheen proclaimed, "In the triumph of His Resurrection our Divine Lord keeps the scars that He received in the hour of His defeat, and He keeps those scars for all eternity." Explaining why, he emphasized, "And on the last day when He shall come in the clouds of heaven to judge the living and the dead, He will show them as pledges of His victory. He is a Prince of Peace, but only because He was once a captain of war and the Lord of Hosts."

"Soldiers wear medals for bravery. But He wears His glorious scars as radiant suns in hands and feet and side; scars that He received the day that He fought in the battle for peace." Again, Venerable Sheen highlighted, with emotion, that we have to pass through that hour with Jesus to get to victory day. "The Via Crucis is the Via Pacis – the Way of the Cross is the Way of Peace."

Father Sheen highlighted in his unique style, "Think of how many are suffering in these lands, and I speak only of those who are in these lands [who] are suffering in the name of Christ. There must be hundreds of thousands of them in these lands. They are having their hour, their hour of darkness, of famine, and of hate. Above all the battlefields of the world, beyond the din of national slogans, the scheming of foxes, the debates of politics, the selfish classes of economic forces, there is one common bond uniting them all – they are all prostrate before the cross of Christ. ... And in this their hour of darkness, they have a pledge that if the Easter law holds true, and it does, to the extent that their sufferings are one with Him, they will rise again.

"Not because of any reshuffling of politicians, or any new theory of economics will they rise, for politics again will fail; economists again will blunder; foxes will be caught in their own traps; schemers will be caught in their own schemes. But because these hundreds of thousands of chosen souls have been signed with a Sign of the Cross and sealed with a seal of salvation because they have borne their cross in Christ in that hour, they will rise with Christ. This war to them is the sowing of a seed. Evil has its hour, but God will have His day."

COMMUNICATION

Use the BULLETIN SUBMISSION link on any of our church websites, 10 days prior, to ensure proper preparation prior to the printing process. An option to include a photo/graphic/logo is provided on the link – it's helpful if those are separate and not combined with the wording to allow for spacing and flexibility. Text, images, layout, wording may be adjusted for clarity/consistency and flexibility for spacing/audience. For questions, special project/ministry/event planning or requests for additional communication methods, call 937-698-4520.

Thank you to our community advertisers! We are glad to patronize your businesses! OLF bulletin is the same at each of our five churches. It's advertisers' choice to purchase advertising space from multiple cities. Find an "EXTRA PAGE" of external groups' content in the Transfiguration/St. Teresa edition, since there are fewer advertisers in those smaller cities. See: www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/sunday-bulletins.
