FR. ERIC BOWMAN'S RAMBLINGS

In today's Gospel, Jesus offers three parables to describe the Kingdom of Heaven. He also explains why He speaks to the crowds in parables and interprets the parable of the sower for the disciples. This reading is a continuation of Jesus' discourse that we began reading last Sunday.

All three parables use commonplace experiences to describe aspects of the Kingdom of Heaven. The first parable is longer and more detailed than the next two, and it alerts us to the two-fold reality of the Kingdom of Heaven. The beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven can be found in this world. The fruition of the Kingdom of Heaven, however, will not be realized until the final judgment. In the meantime, as Jesus' explanation to the disciples cautions, any effort to judge the progress of the Kingdom of Heaven is premature. Only God, in the final judgment, will distinguish the fruit of the Kingdom of Heaven and offer its reward.

The second and third parables call to our attention the abundance that will result from the small beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven. Just as a mustard seed—the smallest of all seeds—will become a large bush, so too, God will bring His Kingdom to full bloom. As a small amount of yeast will leaven the entire batch of bread, so too, God will bring about the expansion of His Kingdom. In each case, the image is of the superabundance that God brings out of even the smallest of signs of the Kingdom.

Contained within these parables are words of caution as well as words of consolation. In the Parable of the Sower, we are warned against judging others. To judge and uproot the "weeds" prematurely will harm the wheat; final judgment rests with God. In the parables of the mustard seed and the yeast, we are consoled by the message that God can work wonders and produce abundance from even the smallest beginnings of the Kingdom of Heaven.

COMMUNICATION

Use the BULLETIN SUBMISSION link on any of our church websites, 10 days prior, to ensure proper preparation prior to the printing process. An option to include a photo/graphic/logo is provided on the link – it's helpful if those are separate and not combined with the wording to allow for spacing and flexibility. Text, images, layout, wording may be adjusted for clarity/consistency and flexibility for spacing/audience. For questions, special project/ministry/event planning or requests for additional communication methods, call 937-698-4520.

Thank you to our community advertisers! We are glad to patronize your businesses! OLF bulletin is the same at each of our five churches. It's advertisers' choice to purchase advertising space from multiple cities. Find an "EXTRA PAGE" of external groups' content in the Transfiguration/St. Teresa edition, since there are fewer advertisers in those smaller cities. See: www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/sunday-bulletins.
