Spend Time with Our Lord in Adoration

"Each one of us is a coworker of Christ – we must labor hard to carry Him to the hearts where He has not yet been known and loved – but, unless we have Jesus, we cannot give Him; that is why we need the Eucharist. Spend as much time as possible in front of the Blessed Sacrament, and He will fill you with His strength and His power."

- Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta

TAKE THE DISCIPLESHIP MAKER INDEX (DMI)!

You might recall from three years ago, the DMI is a 95-question survey tool that supports Church ministry with objective data, helping Her leaders recognize their potential and envision future possibilities through a deep analysis of attitude and belief, participation, relationship/satisfaction, and demographics. Your participation will now only help provide your pastor and parish leaders with a better understanding of where to focus efforts and energies to help you grow in your faith and achieve the parish's mission, but the responses will also be included in the listening process for Synod 2027. Archbishop Casey, the synod Preparatory Commission and Secretariat will review and contemplate the input received from the Disciple Maker Index as they discern the primary themes or questions that will be considered at the Synod General Assembly in fall 2027. Open your phone camera – Aim it toward the QR code – Click the link. Search for your parish name.

Our Lady of Fatima Mass of Remembrance for those parishioners and staff who lost their lives this past year.

All Souls' Day | Monday, November 2

7:00 p.m. Mass, 6:45 p.m. Reading of Names at Church of the Transfiguration

To allow people to attend the OLF Mass of Remembrance at Church of the Transfiguration, the monthly Charismatic Healing Mass has been moved to November 9.

FR. ERIC BOWMAN'S RAMBLINGS

The Two Great Commandments

Praised be the God and Father of Our Lord Jesus Christ!

Given the new and unplanned reduction to Our Lady of Fatima's assigned priests, as pastor, I would like to take this opportunity to share with you the general plan for Our Lady of Fatima over the next several months to cover the temporary reduction. The challenge we face is a shortage of priests in general. Archbishop Casey joked with me and said, "Fr. Eric, it's not like I can place an overnight-order from Amazon for a new priest."

After a lengthy discussion with the Archbishop, Fr. Schmiesing and I, my leadership team and some of the retired priests who reside in West Milton have formulated a plan to cover all previously-scheduled Our Lady of Fatima liturgical, sacramental and spiritual needs of our people through July 30, 2026. This Mass and Confession coverage is something that you know is a priority to me for our people. The end of the fiscal year is when a priest will be officially appointed as vicar to our family of parishes.

Fr. John MacQuarrie and Fr. Steve Shoup will graciously cover all Masses and Thursday evening Confessions at Transfiguration. Fr. Jim Duell has also agreed to help with some of the St. Teresa Masses. Fr. Terry Schneider and Fr. Ken Baker will continue to sub when they are free. Fr. Joe Kozar will remain a Sunday Associate for St. Patrick. They do not hold other OLF administrative responsibilities, so all questions and programmatic, operational and ministry needs will continue to be routed to my attention or to the appropriate office personnel.

Fr. Schmiesing and I will cover the rest of the liturgical gaps, to include Piqua and Troy Masses, Confessions, anointings and other Sacramental/spiritual duties. We will look forward to a rotation that will again allow us to celebrate Masses at Transfiguration and St. Teresa in the future. But until then, we are grateful for the coverage assistance. Similar to what Piqua does a few times a year, feel free to let us know if you would like to arrange for some fellowship with us after daily Masses in the coming weeks and months. Just send an e-mail to natalie@fatima-family.org so that it can get arranged.

I am incredibly grateful to my older brothers for making the sacrifice to "come out of retirement" to assist us in our time of need!

VICAR'S VOICE

ESCHATOLOGY: DEATH AND JUDGMENT | BY Fr. Jacob Schmiesing

On November 1 and 2, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All Souls. The Church sets these dual feasts at the beginning of November, coinciding with the last few weeks of the liturgical year. Mirroring the darkening natural world in this season, the liturgical life of the Church, from the readings and prayers at Mass to the feasts she celebrates, shifts focus to the end of our lives and of the world. "Eschatology," meaning the study of the last or final things, is the term used to describe these elements. Over the next few weeks, the bulletin articles will be a series concerning eschatology and "The Four Last Things" which await all of us at the end of our lives. These Four Last Things are death and judgment, then either Heaven or Hell.

Benjamin Franklin famously quipped that only death and taxes are certain, and the Catholic Church partially agrees with him. After we die, personal judgment is certain to follow. These two events are the gateway from this world to eternal life, and everybody passes through them. Thus, during this season, the Church encourages us to think about them so they do not catch us unaware. This is not some morbid or macabre obsession of the Church, but a recognition of the plain reality that our entire life on this side of eternity is finalized at the moment of our death with eternal consequences.

Death, on one hand, is pretty straightforward, and most of us have some second-hand experience with it by the time we reach adulthood, not to mention by old age. Judgment, on the other hand, is much more obscure. Even the Church does not provide many concrete points about what our personal judgment before God will look like. God is all-knowing, so our entire life will lay open before Him and ourself. He is simultaneously perfectly merciful and perfectly just, so His judgment will be both kind and fair. Most importantly, His judgment is absolute and final, and will set us on our course for an eternity in either Heaven or Hell. However, each of us must wait to see what form this takes and how we will experience it.

For many people, death and judgment are legitimately intimidating; by definition, none of us have experienced either one. However, in Christian faith and hope, we can prepare ourselves for them when they come. By thinking about our death and reflecting on our life, we reconcile ourselves to our fate and the fate of all humans, which helps us prepare to die at peace and without undue fear or anxiety. To prepare for our judgment before God, we must always strive to live an upright and moral life, humbly confessing our sins when we fall, so that we can appeal to both God's justice and mercy. By doing these well, we can hold fast to the hope of an eternity of perfect happiness in Heaven.

COMMUNICATION

Use the BULLETIN SUBMISSION link on any of our church websites, 10 days prior, to ensure proper preparation prior to the printing process. It's helpful if graphics/logos/QRs are separate and not combined with the wording to allow for spacing and flexibility. Submissions and inclusion or timing are subject to editorial review. Text, images, layouts, spacing for clarity, style and consistency with our publication may be edited. Please do not submit predesigned or finalized materials to allow flexibility for content to fit the printer's format needs. For questions, special project/ministry/event planning or requests or additional communication, call 937-698-4520.

Thank you to our community advertisers! OLF bulletin is the same at each of our five churches. It's advertisers' choice to purchase advertising space from multiple cities. Find an "EXTRA PAGE" of external groups' content in the Transfiguration/St. Teresa edition, since there are fewer advertisers in those smaller cities. See: www.transfigurationcatholicchurch.org/sunday-bulletins.
